The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk return the same to the Senate with information that the House has passed it without amendments.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 3023 (Senate Bill No. 1469), as follows:

An Act to provide for the burial of indigent dead throughout the Commonwealth prescribing the procedure therefor and delimiting the costs thereof imposing certain duties on directors of the poor and/or the county commissioners in the several counties and providing penalties

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same

Section 1 That the following terms as used in this act shall unless the context indicates otherwise have the following meanings

(a) The word "burial" shall be considered to include the care preparation and disposition of the bodies of deceased persons from the time of death through actual interment including simple funeral services and shall include the following Casket and if requested by claimant an outside wooden box clothing embalming hearse and one automobile grave including opening and closing thereof and a suitable marker on said grave with copper plate affixed thereto containing name of deceased and dates of birth or death if known

(b) The word "indigent" shall have reference to any deceased person whose estate together with the estate of a relative or friend if any who claims the body of such person is insufficient to defray reasonable burial expenses

(c) The word "relative" shall include any person related to an indigent deceased by blood or marriage not more remote than grandparents and grandchildren brothers or sisters-in-law and first cousins

(d) The words "County Commissioners" shall include the County Commissioners individually or their agents duly authorized to perform the duties prescribed by this Act

(e) The word "claimant" shall include any person or social agency entitled under Section 2 to make request for burial at public expense

(f) The words "funeral director" shall include any individual partnership corporation or unincorporated association engaged in the business or profession of funeral directing undertaking or the care embalming disposition or burial of the bodies of deceased persons whether such person shall use the title of "Undertaker" "Undertaker and Embalmer" "Embalmer" "Funeral Director" "Mortician" or other term of similar import

Section 2 (a) That in case of the death within this Commonwealth of any individual whose estate is shown upon reasonable investigation to be insufficient to defray reasonable burial expenses any relative or friend of such deceased person or any social agency may without cost to himself within thirty-six hours after death claim the body of such person from any institution private or public or from any public officer including agents of the Anatomical Board in whose possession the body may be

(b) Where any such claim is made the claimant may request from the Directors of the Poor of the poor district in which the deceased has died in counties where such officers exist and in other counties from the County Commissioners a burial at public expense It shall thereupon become the duty of the Directors of the Poor or the County Commissioners as the case may be upon whom such demand has been made to make a reasonable investigation into the financial status of the deceased and of the claimant A report from a recognized social agency and an affidavit by the claimant as to financial condition shall be deemed a sufficient investigation If it appears that the estates of the deceased and the claimant are unable to bear the expense of burial and that the claim is made in good faith then the request so made for burial at public expense shall be granted upon the terms and conditions hereinafter set forth

(c) The provisions of paragraph (b) of this section shall also be applicable where by virtue of the indigent deceased having died at his home or other private place no claim pursuant to paragraph (a) of this section is necessary provided a person who would be entitled to make such claim makes due request of the Directors of the Poor or the County Commissioners as the case may be for a burial at public expense

Section 3 (a) Where any deceased person is entitled to burial at public expense by virtue of having been claimed by a relative pursuant to Section 2 hereof such relative claimant shall have opportunity to select a funeral director of his own choosing who shall be employed by the Directors of the Poor or by the County Commissioners as the case may be

(b) Where no selection of a funeral director is made by a relative claimant pursuant to the preceding paragraph and in cases where a body has been claimed by a friend of the deceased or by social agency and in case of indigent death where there is no claimant including instances where bodies shall have been rejected by the Anatomical Board the Directors of the Poor or the County Commissioners shall themselves select and employ a funeral director in accordance with the following procedure

(1) All Directors of the Poor and in counties where they do not exist the County Commissioners shall annually procure from the State Board of Undertakers a certified list of licensed funeral directors within their respective districts

(2) If the residence of the deceased as stated in his death certificate shall have been in the county where the claim is made then the funeral director shall be the one whose place of business is in closest proximity to the former residence of the deceased

(3) If the residence of the decreased shall have been outside the county where the claim is made or is unknown or if the deceased shall have died in a hospital or public institution without other known residence within the county where the claim is made then the funeral director shall be selected by rotation from said certified list Any situation with reference to residence or other matters which may arise shall be governed by regulations prescribed by the Department of Health

(4) In selecting funeral directors under the provisions of this section the Directors of the Poor or the County Commissioners shall give preference so far as possible to funeral directors of the same race as the deceased

Section 4 In all cases of burial at public expense of indigents as required by this or any other act or acts the expense of such burial shall be borne by the county where the deceased shall have been buried and shall be the sum of $75.00 for the body of any person over ten years of age the sum of $60.00 for the body of any person between the age of one and ten years and the sum of $30.00 for each stillborn infant or infant up to one year of age In cases where by virtue of no claim for a body having been made there is no funeral service the sums payable by the county shall be $15.00 less in each of the classes above enumerated

Section 5 It shall be the duty of every funeral director licensed by this Commonwealth properly to conduct the arrangements for burial of any body or bodies which may be assigned to him under the provisions of this Act

Section 6 Each funeral director who conducts a burial under the provisions of this Act shall submit his bill to the Directors of the Poor or the County Commissioners as the case may be and shall attach thereto an affidavit executed by him stating the name and age if known of the deceased the date of death and date of burial name of claimant if any whether or not funeral services were held that the affiant has conducted the burial pursuant to the specifications prescribed in Section 1 (a) of this Act and that he has not made or collected any fees or charges from any individual or in any manner an amount whatever on account of said burial as specified herein

Section 7 It shall be unlawful for any funeral director who conducts a burial pursuant to the terms of this Act to make or collect any fees or charges from any private individual or in any manner and amount other than is provided for in this Act for the funeral services specified in section 1 (c) Violation of this provision shall be a misdemeanor and punishable by a fine of not more than ($100.00) or imprisonment not exceeding one month or both

Section 8 This Act shall be construed liberally it being the intention of the legislature to provide for the proper burial of deceased indigent persons uniformly throughout the Commonwealth Where the singular number is used it shall include the plural number and conversely the plural may also mean the singular Where the masculine gender is used it may be construed to mean the feminine

Section 9 Nothing in this Act shall affect the right of the Anatomical Board to receive such bodies as it is entitled to receive under the provisions of the Act of June thirteen one thousand eight hundred eighty-three Pamphlet Laws one hundred nineteen Section two as amended except where the body is claimed by relatives or friends of the deceased person or by a social agency nor shall this Act apply to soldiers sailors or marines

Section 10 It is hereby declared to be the legislative intent that if this act cannot take effect in its entirety because of the decision of any court holding unconstitutional any part hereof the remaining provisions of the act shall be given full force and effect as completely as if the part held unconstitutional had not been included herein

Section 11 All acts or parts of acts inconsistent herewith are hereby repealed

Section 12 This act shall become effective immediately upon approval by the Governor

And said bill having been read at length the third time, considered and agreed to,

Section 2 This amendment shall become effective immediately upon final enactment

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to,

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. HERMANSEN. Mr. Speaker, I move that this bill be recommitted to the Committee on Education for the purpose of further study and amendment.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the motion?

Mr. HOMER S. BROWN. Mr. Speaker, I would like to interrogate the gentleman from Luzerne, Mr. Hermansen

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Luzerne permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. HERMANSEN. I will, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. HOMER S. BROWN. Mr. Speaker, may I ask the gentleman from Luzerne, Mr. Hermansen, for what purpose he wishes this bill recommitted to the Committee on Education?

Mr. HERMANSEN. Mr. Speaker, I recognize the fact that these amendments are worthy amendments to a certain extent but the one amendment that opens up this act for six months is entirely too long and I want to amend that to reduce it to thirty days, which would give all of these practitioners ample time to get into the fold.

Mr. HOMER S. BROWN. Mr. Speaker, I do no want to impute any bad faith on the part of the gentleman from Luzerne, Mr. Hermansen, but I am strongly of the opinion that the only purpose of recommitting this bill is for the purpose of killing the bill. Now, we all understand fully that we are in the last days of the session. It is obvious to all of us that probably the Committee on Education will not meet again and this bill is very important. The amendment striking out the time of six months and giving only thirty days should not be allowed by this House. Therefore, I ask the members in fairness to those who are interested in this bill to vote "no" on these amendments.

Mr. HERMANSEN. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I want to assure the House that I am sincere in what I am endeavoring to do at this time and I am prepared to give my reasons for doing so.

Mr. Speaker and members of the House, this bill was enacted two years ago and as a result of its enactment it has proved to be constructive legislation. It has made it possible for a large number of people throughout the State to earn an honorable and respective livelihood. The bill does not cost the State anything, inasmuch as the revenue that has been collected from it is $93,000, and the expenditure is only $11,000, leaving a balance of $82,000. Now what we fear in these amendments is that they are going to break down the structure of the act and leave a lot of people into the profession who are not going to benefit the profession. We think that—

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. HOMER S. BROWN. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a point of order.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state his point of order.

Mr. HOMER S. BROWN. The gentleman is speaking on the amendments to the bill and not to the motion to recommit.

The SPEAKER. The point of order is well taken. The gentleman will confine himself to the motion to recommit.

Mr. HERMANSEN. Mr. Speaker, I was talking on the merits of the amendment. The amendment has a tendency to break down the constructive work that this act has provided. I think in this crisis and in this depression it is very important that we give attention to where we might be able to put people in a position where they can earn a livelihood. We are afraid that this amendment will break down the structure of this act. We feel that thirty days is ample time for the Department to issue the certificates. They have a large list of applications for certificates. They could issue those very liberally in thirty days. I am asking the House to let this bill go back to the Committee on Education with the request that they they meet and report it out immediately.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the motion?

It was not agreed to.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows, viz:

Agreeably to order,

The rule requiring bills to be considered in Committee of the Whole being in this dispensed with,

The House proceeded to the second reading and consideration of House Bill No. 2917 (Senate Bill No. 1305), entitled:

An Act to further amend subsection twenty of and to add subsections twenty-five and twenty-six to section one thousand two hundred and ten of the act approved the eighteenth day of May one thousand nine hundred and eleven (Pamphlet Laws three hundred nine) entitled "An act to establish a public school system in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania together with the provisions by which it shall be administered and prescribing penalties for the violation thereof providing revenue to establish and maintain the same and the method of collecting such revenue and repealing all laws general special or local or any parts thereof that are or may be inconsistent therewith" by requiring the payment by the Commonwealth of the whole of the minimum salaries of members of the teaching and supervisory staffs of elementary schools and of an additional part of the minimum salaries of the members of the teaching and supervisory staffs of junior high schools subject to the reduction of taxes on real property by schools districts and imposing duties on school districts

The first section was read and agreed to as follows:

Section 1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same That subsection twenty of section one thousand two hundred and ten of the act approved the eighteenth day of May one thousand nine hundred and eleven (Pamphlet Laws three hundred nine) entitled "An act to establish a public school system in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania together with the provisions by which it shall be administered and prescribing penalties for the violation thereof providing revenue to establish and maintain the same and the method of collecting such revenue and repealing all laws general special or local or any parts thereof that are or may be inconsistent therewith" as last amended by section twenty-nine of the act approved the twenty-ninth day of May one thousand nine hundred and thirty-one (Pamphlet Laws two hundred forty-three) is hereby further amended to read as follows

Twenty On or before the first day of November of each year each school district of the first and second class and each school district of the third class having a district superintendent shall file a certificate with the Superintendent of Public Instruction in such form as he may prescribe and on blanks to be furnished by him showing the number of full-time teachers supervisors principals and other full-time members of the teaching and supervisory staffs the number thereof employed in elementary schools and the number employed respectively in three and four year junior high schools the certificates held by each and the compensation paid each for the current school year and showing further the number of part-time teachers supervisors and principals employed in extension schools and classes established as herein provided the certificates held by each and the compensation paid each during the preceding school year On or before the first day of October of each year each school district of the third class not having a district superintendent and each school district of the fourth class shall forward such a certificate to the county superintendent and if approved by him the county superintendent shall forward the same to the Superintendent of Public Instruction on or before the first day of November of each year

The second section was read as follows:

Section 2 Section one thousand two hundred and ten of said act is hereby further amended by adding at the end thereof two new subsections to read as follows

Twenty-five In addition to all payments which the Commonwealth is now by law required to make to school districts on account of the salaries of members of the teaching and supervisory staffs of such school districts the Commonwealth shall pay for the fiscal year beginning June first one thousand nine hundred and thirty-six and each fiscal year thereafter to such school districts as comply with the laws governing the public schools of the Commonwealth and with the further requirements of these amendments for the payment of the whole balance not now required to be paid by the Commonwealth of the annual minimum salary without increments prescribed by law of all full-time members of the teaching and supervisory staffs of all elementary schools employed by all school districts and for the payment of such part of the annual minimum salary without increments prescribed by law of all full-time members of the teaching and supervisory staffs of all junior high schools giving work for the seventh eighth and ninth years as prescribed by law employed by all schools districts as shall equal two-thirds of the annual minimum salary prescribed by law for the teaching and supervisory staffs of elementary schools and of all junior high schools giving work for the seventh eighth ninth and tenth years as prescribed by law as shall equal one-half of the annual minimum salary prescribed by law for the teaching and supervisory staffs of elementary schools as shown by the certificate required by law to be filed with the Superintendent of Public Instruction in the November immediately preceding any such fiscal year Such payments shall be made in the same manner and at the same times as payments on account of such salaries are by law required to be made

Twenty-six Except as hereinafter provided no school district shall be entitled to receive or shall be paid State-aid under the provisions of these amendments unless the board of education or board of school directors of the school district shall for the fiscal year of such school district commencing on the first day of January one thousand nine hundred and thirty-six or on the first Monday of July one thousand nine hundred and thirty-six as the case may be and for each fiscal year thereafter reduce the amount of its budget to be raised by means of taxes on real estate per estimated pupil and correspondingly its tax rate as compared with the amount of tax revenue raised from real estate per pupil during the fiscal year one thousand nine hundred and thirty-two or one thousand nine hundred and thirty-two one thousand nine hundred and thirty-three as the case may be by an amount not less than the State-aid per estimated pupil to be received from payments received to be made by the Commonwealth under the provisions of these amendments and payable to the school district during said school year Provided That no school district shall reduce its tax levy on real estate for any school year below that required to pay the interest and sinking fund charges on the funded debt of the school district or as may be required for capital expenditures Provided further that in any case where by reason of either additional or fewer increments required by law the salary budget of any school district has been increased or reduced beyond the proportions herein prescribed such school district shall add or subtract as the case may be the total amount of such increments to or from the salary budget herein provided for

If any question shall raise under this subsection whether a school district in accordance with the spirit and intent of these amendments has either effected a reduction of taxes on real estate or has failed to do so only because of the reasonable requirements of its educational program such question shall be decided by the Superintendent of Public Instruction whose action thereon shall be final

On the question,

Will the House agree to the section?

Mr. RUTH. Mr. Speaker, I desire to offer the following amendments.

The SPEAKER. The amendment will be read by the Clerk.

RESOLUTION

Mr. HABERLEN offered the following resolution and asked and obtained unanimous consent for its immediate consideration.

The resolution was twice read, considered and unanimously adopted:

In the House of Representatives, June 20, 1935

In these last moments of a dying session, when fatigue and weariness oppress the members of this body, and

The reaction of a more or less successful struggle for six months against tremendous odds weighs heavily upon us,

A ray of light and joy and happiness is a most welcome relief.

That ray has been granted us by the news that the wife of the Hon. John H. Dent has presented to him a leather lunged and husky boy, whose official weight on arrival was six pounds, seven ounces, therefore be it

Resolved, That the Members of the House of Representatives of the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, most heartily congratulate the Hon. John H. Dent and his wife on this charming memento of a turbulent session, and be it further

Resolved, That we congratulate the little fellow on his happy choice of parents, and be it further

Resolved, That the Chief Clerk of this House present to the Hon. John H. Dent three copies of this resolution, properly inscribed, one for himself, one for his good wife, and one for the new resident of Westmoreland County, to whom his father is instructed to make known the contents thereof.

RECESS

The SPEAKER. If there are no objections the Chair is about to declare a recess until 9.00 P. M. Are there objections? The Chair hears none and declares a recess until 9.00 P. M.

AFTER RECESS

The House reconvened at 9.00 P. M.

The SPEAKER (Wilson G. Sarig) in the Chair.

SENATE MESSAGE

AMENDED HOUSE BILL RETURNED FOR CONCURRENCE

The Clerk of the Senate, being introduced, returned bill from the House of Representatives numbered and entitled as follows:

HOUSE BILL No. 926.

An Act to amend section five hundred and eighteen of the act approved the twenty-second day of May one thousand nine hundred and thirty-three (P. L. 853) entitled "An act relating to taxation designating the subjects property and persons subject to and exempt from taxation for all local purposes providing for and regulating the assessment and valuation of persons property and subjects of taxation for county purposes and for the use of those municipal and quasi-municipal corporations which levy their taxes on county assessments and valuations amending revising and consolidating the law relating thereto and repealing existing laws" by abolishing the payment of taxes into court on appeals from assessments

With the information that the Senate has passed the same with amendments, in which the concurrence of the House of Representatives is requested.

The SPEAKER. The Clerk will read the amendments.

The Clerk read the amendments as follows:

Amend title, page 1, last line by inserting after the syllable "ments" the words "providing for the payment of taxes under protest and restricting the expenditure of such taxes moneys regulating the refunding of taxes after the disposition of appeals conferring powers upon courts of common pleas and providing for the disposition of funds heretofore paid into court."

Amend Section 1, page 3, line 22, by striking out the light face bracket before the word "And"; also on page 3, line 27, by inserting after the word "tax" the following: "to the tax collector under protest in writing in which case when the tax is paid over to the taxing district it shall be the duty of the tax collector to notify the taxing district of such payment under protest by delivering to it the protest in writing Whereupon the taxing district shall be required to segregate twenty-five per centum (25%) of the amount of the tax paid over and shall deposit the same in a separate account in the depository in which the funds of the taxing district are deposited and shall not be permitted to expend any portion of such segregated amount unless it shall first petition the court alleging that such segregated amount is unjustly withheld Thereupon the court shall have power to order the use by the taxing district of such portion of such segregated amount"

Also on page 4, line 1, by inserting after the word "the" the word "segregated"; also in line 2, by inserting after the word "court" the words "segregated by the taxing district"; also in same line by inserting after the word "appeal" the following new paragraphs: "Provided further That upon final disposition of the appeal the amount found to be due the appellant as a refund shall also be a legal set off or credit against any future taxes assessed against the appellant by the same taxing district and where a taxing district alleges that it is unable to thus credit all of such refund in one year the court upon application of either party shall determine over what period of time such refund shall be made and shall fix the amount thereof which shall be credited in any year or years This proviso shall be construed to apply to all refunds that are now due or may hereafter become due as the result of appeals from assessments that have not been finally determined or adjusted at the time this act takes effect regardless whether there has been a payment of any moneys into court or to the tax collector under written protest

"Section 2 This act shall become effective immediately upon final enactment

"Section 3 Where under the provisions of the existing law any appellant has heretofore paid any tax into court pending the disposition of an appeal the court shall upon application of the taxing district order the payment to the taxing district of the total amount of such fund and twenty-five per centum (25%) thereof shall be segregated and deposited by the taxing district in like manner and subject to like proceedings as hereinbefore required in the case of payments by appellants under protest"

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows, viz:

SENATE MESSAGE

CONCURRENCE IN HOUSE RESOLUTION No. 167

The Clerk of the Senate being introduced, informed that the Senate has concurred in the resolution from the House of Representatives as follows:

In the House of Representatives, June 10, 1935.

Whereas The Federal Government has created a fund of $4,000,000 for the construction of public works to relieve unemployment and

Whereas The construction and operation of municipal sewers and sewage treatment works not only relieves unemployment but as well is one of the desired steps in purifying the streams and relieving filtration plants of excess loads and

Whereas Because of the Constitutional limitation on its borrowing power and the large amount of delinquent taxes it is impossible for the city of Easton to complete the construction of its sewage system and the necessary sewage treatment works therefore be it

Resolved (if the Senate concur) That the Federal authorities be requested to allocate from the Federal appropriation for public works such sum or sums as may be necessary for the completion of the sewage system and sewage treatment works in the city of Easton and that such sums be requested as outright grants to enable said city to proceed with these improvements

Resolved That a copy of this resolution be transmitted to the Public Works Administration by the Chief Clerk of this House

MOTION TO POSTPONE HOUSE BILL No. 3044, SENATE BILL No. 1527

Mr. WEISS. Mr. Speaker, I move that House Bill No. 3044, Senate Bill No. 1527, Printer's No. 729, entitled:

An Act defining the term "fiduciary" prescribing the nature and kind of investments which may be made by such fiduciaries validating certain investments heretofore made by such fiduciaries and repealing acts and parts of acts inconsistent herewith on page 5 of today's calendar, bills on second reading, be recommitted to the Committee on Judiciary General for further study.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the motion?

Mr. WITKIN. Mr. Speaker, I would like to interrogate the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Weiss.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Allegheny permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. WEISS. I will, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. WITKIN. Mr. Speaker, in view of the fact that I understand this to be a bill that was approved by the Banking Department and sponsored by it, may I ask the purpose in sending it back to committee?

Mr. WEISS. Mr. Speaker, in view of the fact that the gentleman from Philadelphia says that it has been approved by the Banking Department, I wish to withdraw my motion and to call Dr. Harr.

Mr. WITKIN. Mr. Speaker, the gentleman does not have to call him up. His representative is right here.

Mr. WEISS. Mr. Speaker, I will withdraw my motion.

COMMONWEALTH OF PENNSYLVANIA

Legislative Journal.

Session 1935. 131st of the General Assembly.

Vol. 18. HARRISBURG, PA., FRIDAY, JUNE 21, 1935 No. 81

SENATE

FRIDAY, June 21, 1935.

The Senate met at 11 o'clock, A. M.

The PRESIDENT (Pro Tempore John G. Homsher) in the Chair.

PRAYER

The Chaplain, Rev. William E. Howard, D. D., offered the following prayer:

Our Heavenly Father, we come today to the final meeting of the Regular Session of the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania for the year 1935. During the weeks and months just past many old acquaintances have been renewed and strengthened and many new friendships have been formed.

Mingled feelings possess our hearts upon this occasion. We regret the loss of fellowship which the cessation of these weekly assemblages will bring about. Yet we rejoice that these representatives of the people have so far discharged their obligations to their constituents as to be able to rest from their labors.

O God give Thy sanction to whatever legislation here enacted is well pleasing unto Thee. Overrule any errors that may have been made so that Thy honor may ultimately be preserved and the people of our State may be protected.

As we return to our homes and regularly assume the routine duties of life, go Thou with us and lead, guide and protect us. At last bring us to Thyself in the General Assembly of the redeemed which shall never be dissolved. Amen.

JOURNAL APPROVED

The PRESIDENT. A quorum of the Senate being present the Clerk will read the Journal of the preceding session.

The Clerk proceeded to read the Journal of the preceding session, when, on motion of Mr. BAUMER, the further reading was dispensed with, and the Journal was approved.

PETITIONS

ments in so far as it fixes the number and compensation of the employes of the registration commission."

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the amendments?

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, the amendments are not satisfactory and I request that a Conference Committee shall not be appointed.

Mr. PYTKO. Mr. President, I desire to interrogate the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Shapiro.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Shapiro, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I will.

Mr. PYTKO. Mr. President, will the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Shapiro, explain for the information of the Senate, just how the amendments made by the House would affect the bill originally introduced?

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, the original bill which I prepared provided that the taxing body shall have control over the number and salaries of all county officers. The amendments eliminated the Registration Commissioner county officer. The matter has been discussed by myself and with several members of the House who are interested in having that particular law amended. I maintain the position, and the purpose of this bill is to place complete control of the salaries and employes of the county officers in that body which has to pay for them and raise the tax to pay the particular officers. I do not propose to take a bill which was framed for a real purpose should be amended to defeat that purpose. I state of record that I do not ask for a Conference Committee. Have I answered the question.

Mr. PYTKO. Mr. President, the question has been answered.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the amendments?

The yeas and nays were taken agreably to the provisions of the Constitution, and were as follows, viz:

Kahle,	Miller,	Rice,	(Centre)

The PRESIDENT. The result of the ballot is as follows: Mr. John G. Homsher received twenty-seven votes, and Mr. Warren R. Roberts received eighteen votes. The Senator from Lancaster, Mr. Homsher, has received the vote of the majority of all the members of the Senate and is, therefore, declared elected to the office of President Pro Tempore of the Senate to serve during the interim beginning after today's session has adjourned.

The Chair appoints the Senator from Northampton, Mr. Roberts, and the Senator from Bucks, Mr. Buckman, to escort the Senator from Lancaster, Mr. Homsher, the newly elected President Pro Tempore of the Senate, to the Bar of the Senate, where the oath of office will be administered by the Honorable Frank B. Wickersham, Additional Law Judge of the Twelfth Judicial District.

Mr. ROBERTS. Mr. President, we have the honor to present the Honorable John G. Homsher, of Lancaster County, President Pro Tempore Elect of the Senate, prepared to take the oath of office.

The oath of office was accordingly administered.

The PRESIDENT. The Chair presents the Honorable John G. Homsher as President Pro Tempore, elected for the ensuing term.

Mr. HOMSHER. Mr. President, Judge Wickersham and fellow Senators, when I was trying to think of something to say upon this occasion I was unable to find words to express the appreciation in which I hold your friendship and the high honor that you have conferred by naming me again as President Pro Tempore of this body.

In the stress and weariness that I know you all feel in the closing hours of this strenuous term of the Legislature, I shall not attempt to make any extended address, and shall trespass upon your time only long enough to again say that I thank you, and that my best wishes for the welfare of each any every one of you are heartfelt. I thank you all.

The PRESIDENT PRO TEMPORE (Mr. John G. Homsher) in the Chair.

QUESTION OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President. I rise to a question of personal privilege.

The PRESIDENT. The Senator from Bucks, Mr. Buckman, will state his question of personal privilege.

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, at a caucus of the Republican Senators held last evening I was instructed by that Republican Caucus to convey to you, Sir, in accordance with a resolution adopted thereat—and I am referring to the President of the Sesate, the Honorable Thomas Kennedy—I was instructed to convey to you, Sir, in accordance with the resolution passed, the appreciation of the Republican Senators for the fairness and the ability which you have shown as our presiding officer during the present session.

And I want to say to you personally that I appreciate the courtesies extended by you and the fairness of your decisions and the dispatch with which the business of this Senate has been conducted. I am not unaware that many decisions and results that were announced by you during this session were not entirely to your liking. Notwithstanding that you have been fair. you have been just. you have dignified the high office which you hold.

The PRESIDENT PRO TEMPORE. The President Pro Tempore joins heartily in the action of the caucus.

LIEUTENANT - GOVERNOR THOMAS KENNEDY. Thank you very much. And to the Republican members of the Senate I express my thanks and appreciation for the many kind things they have said to me. I express the hope that I shall containue to preside fairly and justly between the various elements in the Senate, and to continue to merit the respect of both sides of this Chamber. Thank you very much.

The PRESIDENT (Lieutenant-Governor Thomas Kennedy) in the Chair.

QUESTION OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Mr. GRAFF. Mr. President, I rise to a question of personal privilege.

The PRESDIENT. The Senator from Armstrong, Mr. Graff, will state his question of personal privilege.

Mr. GRAFF. Mr. President and members of the Senate I was called out at the time the vote was being taken for the election of President Pro Tempore of the Senate, and I wish to say that had I been present my vote would have been cast for the Honorable John G. Homsher.

The PRESIDENT. The remarks will be made a matter of record.

HOUSE MESSAGES

SENATE BILL NO. 1128 RETURNED WITH AMENDMENTS

The Clerk of the House of Representatives being introduced returned to the Senate, Senate Bill No. 1128. entitled

An Act to protect the obligors or guarantors of bonds and mortgages and owners of property affected thereby and others indirectly liable for the payment thereof and owners of mortgaged property affected thereby by restricting the right to proceed against certain property and persons limiting the amount of deficiency judgments and continuing rights duties and obligations established or forfeited under prior laws relating to deficiency judgments with the information that the House has passed same with amendments in which the concurrence of the Senate is requested.

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President. I move that Rule 21 which requires amended bills to be noted on the Calendar, be in this case dispensed with and that the Senate proceed to the consideration of the amendments made by the House of Representatives to the foregoing bill.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

Said amendments having been printed as required by the Constitution, were twice read as follows: Amend title, page 1, line 1, by striking out the following: "obligors or guarantors of bonds and mortgages and owners of property affected thereby and other indirectly liable for the payment thereof"; also line 3 of the title, by inserting heavy faced bracket after "and"; also line 4 of title, by striking out the heavy faced brackets before and after "mortgaged"; also line 4 of title by inserting a heavy faced bracket in front of the word "affected"; also section 1, page 1, line 4, by striking out "or any other obligation securing or guaranteeing"; also section 1, page 2, line 5, by striking out the following: "and before any other person bound by any obligation securing or guaranteeing the payment of said mortgage debt may be priceeded against or any property real or personal of any such other person may be attached levied on or sold for the debt secured by such bond and mortgage"; also section 3, page 3, line 12. by striking out "or any obligation securing or guaranteeing such mortgage debt"; also section 8, page 6. by striking out all of lines 9 and 10; also section 9, page 6. line 14, by striking out "or guaranteeing."

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the amendments?

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, this bill is referred to as the deficiency judgment act. Certain amendments to the bill, made by the House, are in general satisfactory, but when we come to the strike-outs the first section has been somewhat changed for the purpose of clarifying it. I am asking the Senate to non-concur in the amendment.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the amendments?

The yeas and nays were taken agreably to the provisions of the Constitution, and were as follows, viz:

HOUSE NON-CONCURS IN AMENDMENTS TO HOUSE BILL NO. 2437

He also informed the Senate that the House has non-concurred in amendments made by the Senate to House Bill No. 2437 entitled:

An Act to re-enact and amend the title and the act approved the twenty-ninth day of November, one thousand nine hundred and thirty-three, 1933-1934 P. L. 15), entitled "Pennsylvania Liquor Control Act," by extending the provisions of said act to the manufacture and possession of alcoholic beverages; permitting licenses to sell for consumption off premises; providing for the revocation and suspension of licenses by the board; further regulating the manufacture, sale and traffic in alcoholic beverages; and prescribing penalties.

SENATE INSISTS UPON ITS AMENDMENTS TO HOUSE BILL NO. 2437.

Mr. COYNE. Mr. President, I move that the Senate insist upon the amendments made by the Senate to the foregoing bill.

Mr. HOWELL. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

Ordered, That the Clerk inform the House of Representatives accordingly.

RESOLUTION RECALLING FROM THE HOUSE HOUSE BILL NO. 1678

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to offer a resolution at this time.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

Mr. GRAFF offered the following resolution which was twice read:

In the Senate, June 21st, 1935.

Resolved (if the House concur), That House Bill No. 1687, Printer's No. 1610, entitled "An act to amend sections one thousand four hundred and two, two thousand five hundred and fifty-two, two thousand five hundred and fifty-four, section two thousand five hundred and fifty-six as amended, sections two thousand five hundred and fifty-seven, two thousand five hundred and fifty-eight, sections two thousand five hundred and fifty-nine, two thousand five hundred and sixty-seven, as amended, and section two thousand five hundred and sixty-eight, and to repeal section two thousand five hundred and fifty-three of the act, approved the twenty-third day of June, one thousand nine hundred and thirty-one (P. L. 932), entitled 'An act relating to cities of the third class; and amending, revising and consolidating the law relating thereto,' providing for the collection of city, county, school and poor taxes in cities of the third class by the city treasurer as tax collector; providing for his compensation and for deputies, clerks and assistants and their compensation to be fixed and paid jointly by the city, county, and school district; requiring the city treasurer to give one bond as treasurer and collector of all of said taxes, the premiums thereof to be paid jointly by the county, city and school district; and generally revising and clarifying the powers and duties of said tax collector," be recalled from the House for the purpose of further consideration.

On the question
Will the Senate agree to the resolution?

Mr. MALLERY. Mr. President, last night I pointed out to the members here that this measure is purely a tax reduction or saving measure. Further, that it does not apply to cities of the first class or second class, nor to second class A. However, the Senators representing those cities are interested in good government. We have been here almost six months, necessarily considering measures that add burden to the taxpayers. I rightly say necessary because the taxes are necessary, but here is a measure that would save the taxpayer. Now, we cannot expect economy unless ofttimes we cut out jobs. That is the only objection to this measure, that it is going to cut out the job of someone. Now, when we run for office we promise people, or at least I did, that is the reason I am taking the floor this morning, because I promised to save the taxpayers money. I was told by an old politician, after making one of those statements, not to "kid" myself, that that could not be done. This can be done if we have the courage to do it, and I ask the members of the Senate to have the courage to do what they know in their own minds is right, and vote as they did last night on this measure.

Mr. REED (Dauphin). Mr. President, I desire to interrogate the Senator from Blair, Mr. Mallery.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Blair, Mr. Mallery, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. MALLERY. Mr. President, I will.

Mr. REED (Dauphin). Mr. President, I desire to ask the Senator who collects the county tax in the city of Altoona.

Mr. MALLERY. Mr. President, by agreement the City Treasurer collects the county tax in the city of Altoona. He is not obligated to do that, but for a number of years the candidates for the office of city treasurer have been obliged to collect the county tax, and it has effected a saving in the city of Altoona, as I said last night, of approximately $8,000.00. Now that is only by agreement. If the city treasurer, after he is elected, would see fit not to comply with that agreement, he, of course, would not be obligated to do it.

Mr. REED (Dauphin). Mr. President, I desire to ask the Senator from Blair further, how much saving then there would be to the taxpayers of the city of Altoona if this bill passed.

Mr. MALLERY. Mr. President, so long as we could have this gentleman's agreement which we have there now, there would not be any. As I stated before, it was only a gentleman's agreement; if a man would be elected and see fit to break the promise to the voters, of course, he could do so.

Mr. REED (Dauphin). Mr. President and members of the Senate, the Senator from Blair has been pressing for the passage of a bill under the plea of economy in the collection of county taxes in third-class cities, even though coming from a third-class city himself, the bill will have no effect upon his city. It seems to me it is poor grace for the Senator from Blair to come before the Senate in the closing hour of this legislative session and plead for this bill, as he alleges, foisting economy on cities of the third class, although he as a representative of a third-class city, has no interest therein.

I desire also to call attention to the fact that we are here dealing with the collection of county taxes, and this seeks to amend the third-class city code.

Mr. President, I will confess, that I did not read this bill prior to the time I took the floor last night in opposition to it, and how it got on the floor I do not know, but, Mr. President, I will ask that this resolution be agreed to, to the end that this Senate may again vote on this very important piece of legislation.

Mr. RUPP. Mr. President, in addition to the remarks of the Senator from Dauphin, Mr. Reed, I desire to call attention of the Senators to the fact, that, of course, we are all interested as taxpayers. The Democratic platform has called for the collection of taxes and I as one of the Democratic Senators, propose to support any measure which looks toward the economic collection of taxes, and this bill means additional employes of the cities and an increase in our payrolls. Instead of effecting an economy and saving to the taxpayers, it means an increased cost to the city. Secondly, it has been our experience in third-class cities under the present system of collecting taxes, two tax collectors that we have now, the taxes from the poorer classes have been collected through the various representatives and employes, and I believe that if we are going to concentrate the collection of taxes in one office, it will mean that he will collect less taxes than under the present system. Mr. President, I further desire to call attention to the fact that under the Act of 1925, it is permissible to place the collection of taxes in the hands of the City Treasurer.

Mr. LAW. Mr. President, I feel that this is one of the few bills which gives us a chance to vote here for the purpose of economy, and I know of one instance, at least, where this bill would eliminate two county tax collectors appointed to take care of parts of the same system, and I feel that we are voting for economy and for the interest of the taxpayers of third-class cities if we vote down this resolution.

Mr. HARVEY. Mr. President, I desire to interrogate the Senator from Mercer, Mr. Law.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Mercer, Mr. Law, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. LAW. Mr. President, I will.

Mr. HARVEY. Mr. President, the Senator from Mercer, Mr. Law, said that this bill would eliminate the county tax collector; this is not a county measure, it is a third-class city measure.

Mr. LAW. Mr. President, I mean that the collectors of county taxes will be replaced by the city treasurer.

Mr. REED (Dauphin). Mr. President, I desire to interrogate the Senator from Mercer, Mr. Law.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Mercer, Mr. Law, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. LAW. Mr. President, I will.

Mr. REED (Dauphin). Mr. President, I desire to ask the Senator from Mercer whether he was one of the ten or eleven who, early in the Session, who voted for the bill which I have introduced to wipe out all the local assessors and have a central assessors board.

Mr. CAVALCANTE. Mr. President, I rise to a point of order.

The PRESIDENT. The Senator from Fayette, Mr. Cavalcante, will state his point of order.

Mr. CAVALCANTE. Mr. President, my point of order is that this bill is not now before the Senate.

The PRESIDENT. The point of order is not well taken.

Mr. MALLERY. Mr. President, one of the opponents of this bill asked to have the bill at this time brought out of Committee. Now, occasionally a good bill does get out of committee, and when it does come out, I sincerely hope that the members of this Senate will support a good bill. We cannot "kid" ourselves, gentlemen, nor the people back home. This is an economy measure. It will effect economy, but there are certain people that are bound to lose their jobs, and that is the only way that we can effect economy. You talk about economy and then when we have the opportunity here—we are going to adjourn shortly—it is the only opportunity that any of us will have to effect economy for the people back home, and I say, during times like these, when many of our constituents are holding jobs, and yet for years they have been attempting to obtain homes, and by reason of the condition of our times they are in jeopardy, then I say that we should have the courage to forget the friend of ours possibly who is liable to lose his job. We must have the courage to do the right thing at the right time.

Mr. CAVALCANTE. Mr. President, I desire to interrogate the Senator from Blair, Mr. Mallery.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Blair, Mr. Mallery, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. MALLERY. Mr. President, I will.

Mr. CAVALCANTE. Mr. President, if this bill is passed and the office of county tax collector is abolished in cities of the third class, does the act give the city treasurer the power to appoint assistants?

Mr. MALLERY. Mr. President, naturally the city treasurer in any city of the third class could not collect all of the taxes. He does that now, the city treasurer, he has the collection of taxes, and naturally he must have assistance.

Mr. CAVALCANTE. Mr. President, does the act limit the appointment of the number of assistants he may have to collect the county taxes?

Mr. MALLERY. Mr. President, it does.

Mr. CAVALCANTE. Mr. President, how many is he permitted to appoint?

Mr. MALLERY. Mr. President, the number is regulated. The county commissioners have one vote, they represent the county; the school board has one vote, the council has one vote. Those three regulate the number of employes and also the salaries of the assistants.

Mr. CAVALCANTE. Mr. President, is it not possible then that the number the city treasurer may employ, their salaries, may equal the remuneration that the collector now receives?

Mr. MALLERY. Mr. President, that might be possible, but I do not think it is probable.

Mr. McGINNIS. Mr. President, it strikes me that when a Senator in this body gets up and tells this Senate that under the act of 1925, a third-class city, by consolidating the collection of its taxes, has saved, with interest, $6,000.00 or $7,000.00, and a bill is brought to this floor compelling other third-class cities to adopt the same method and is passed, that to ask this Senate to turn around and recall that bill and kill it, it seems to me a most stultifying act. It seems to me we have the opportunity of consolidating the overlapping government and here is a bill that somehow, evidently through mistake, has gone through the Senate, and I say, Mr. President, that on the last day of this Session, to turn around and recall a bill that saves a third-class city like Altoona $6,000 or $7,000 as I have said before, is stultifying.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the resolution?

The PRESIDENT. The question is on the adoption of the resolution to recall the bill from the House. In view of the sharp differences of opinion, the Chair directs that the roll be called.

The yeas and nays were taken agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, and were as follows, viz:

Mr. GELDER. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that Report of Committee of Conference, on Senate Bill No. 147, entitled:

An Act providing for and regulating subject to certain restrictions limitations and liabilities the granting of pensions by the Commonwealth to certain blind persons providing for the administration of this act by the Department of Welfare the trustees who administer mothers' assistance in the several counties or by other trustees in certain cases authorizing appointment of trustees for the pensions payable to certain individuals authorizing the Department of Welfare to cooperate with and to accept and disburse moneys received from the United States Government for assistance to the blind and providing penalties go over in its order.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

Mr. HARRIS. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that Report of Committee of Conference on Senate Bill No. 155 entitled:

An Act making appropriations to the Moore Institute of Art, Science and Industry Philadelphia School of Design for Women at Philadelphia Pennsylvania go over in its order.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, in the absence of the sponsor, Mr. Ziesenheim, I ask unanimous consent that Report of Committee of Conference on Senate Bill No. 1049, entitled:

An Act to amend clauses (i) and (l) of section two and section three of the act approved the nineteenth day of February one thousand nine hundred and twenty-six (Pamphlet Laws sixteen) entitled as amended "An act regulating under permit through the Pennsylvania Liquor Control Board the manufacture production distillation development use in manufacture denaturization redistillation rectification blending recovery reuse holding in bond holding in storage by bailees for hire and transportation for hire of any alcohol alcoholic liquid or alcoholic beverage by certain persons requiring the registration of Federal permits also providing for fees and the disposition thereof and for appeals to the courts also authorizing the inspection of the records of permittees and purchasers of said alcohol alcoholic liquid and alcoholic beverages also declaring certain places nuisances and providing for their abatement also providing penalties and also repealing all acts or parts of acts inconsistent with this act" as amended further defining distilleries and wineries and providing for the licensure and rights of manufacturers of wine

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

BILL ON THIRD READING AND FINAL PASSAGE

Mr. SORDONI. Mr. President, I desire to call up out of order, Senate Bill No. 1731 (House Bill No. 2762) on third reading.

Agreeably to order,

The Senate proceeded to the third reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 1731 (House Bill No. 2762), entitled:

An Act requiring operators of anthracite coal mines to report shipments to the Department of Mines

And said bill having been read at length the third time, and agreed to,

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. SORDONI. Mr. President, I just want to say to the members of the Senate that this bill is of particular interest in the anthracite coal business. It provides that all anthracite shipped either by truck or rail must be reported to the Department of Mines as to its ultimate destination, the idea back of it being that in case of a slump in the trade of a particular district, they can determine what steps are necessary to be taken to oppose the sale of anthracite in that district, and, while all the anthracite operators do not agree on the provisions of the bill, I can safely say that about 80 per cent do agree, and I hope the Senate will pass the bill.

Mr. THOMPSON (Centre). Mr. President, I would like to interrogate the Senator from Luzerne, Mr. Sordoni.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Luzerne, Mr. Sordoni, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. SORDONI. Mr. President, I will.

Mr. THOMPSON (Centre). Mr. President, I would ask the Senator from Luzerne, Mr. Sordoni, what effect this bill would have upon the bootleg coal industry in the anthracite region?

Mr. SORDONI. Mr. President, I am not familiar with what effect it would have upon the bootleg anthracite coal industry. I am not concerned about anything which would affect any illegal operation, I am interested in how it will affect the legally operated mines and the industry as a whole.

And the question recurring

Shall the bill pass finally?

Section 11 (a) All payments under the provisions of this act shall be made monthly direct to the recipient thereof by warrant after requisition as provided by law Provided That the Department of Welfare may appoint a trustee to take charge of the expenditure of the pension granted any applicant when in its option such trustee is necessary In such case the payment shall be made direct to such trustee upon requisition of the department Such trustee shall serve without pay and shall be subject to the rules and regulations which the department shall prescribe

(b) It shall be lawful for the Department of Welfare at any time not less than thirty days after the death of the beneficiary to authorize the payment of any grants due to such deceased beneficiary to the wife children father or mother sister or brother (preference being given in the order named) of the deceased beneficiary as the board directs without requiring letters testamentary or of administration to be issued upon the estate of said deceased beneficiary

Section 12 Pensions under this act and all expenses incurred by the Department of Welfare and the Board of Trustees of Pension Fund for the Blind in the administration of this act shall be paid by the Department of Welfare out of moneys made available for this purpose by the Legislature including any moneys contributed by the United States Government for this purpose Allocations of amounts available for pensions shall be made by the Department of Welfare among the several counties according to the number of persons receiving pensions and who are eligible for pensions up to the end of the tenth month of the previous fiscal year Pensions shall be payable to additional applicants only if funds are available to provide for payment for the entire biennium

Section 13 The Department of Welfare is hereby empowered and authorized to cooperate and enter into cooperative agreements with and to receive contributions from the United States Government for financial assistance to the blind All contributions received hereunder from the United States Government shall be paid into the State Treasury through the Department of Revenue and credited to the biennial appropriations to the Department of Welfare for the payment of pensions to the blind

Section 14 Any person who by means of a wilfully false statement or misrepresentation or by impersonation or other fraudulent means obtains or attempts to obtain or aids or abets any person in obtaining a pension under this act to which he is not entitled shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be sentenced to pay a fine not exceeding five hundred dollars ($500) or to undergo imprisonment not exceeding one year or both

Section 15 The provisions of this act shall be severable and if any of its provisions shall be held to be unconstitutional such decision shall not affect the validity of any of the remaining provisions of this act It is hereby declared as the legislative intent that this act would have been adopted had such unconstitutional provision not been included therein

Section 16 The act approved the seventeenth day of January one thousand nine hundred and thirty-four (Pamphlet Laws two hundred forty-six) entitled "An act providing for and regulating subject to certain restrictions limitations and liabilities pensions for certain blind persons and the administration of this act by the Department of Welfare the trustees who administer mothers' assistance in the several counties or by other trustees in certain cases authorizing appointment of trustees for the pensions payable to certain individuals and providing penalties" is hereby repealed

All other acts and parts of acts inconsistent herewith are hereby repealed

Section 17 The members of the respective Boards of Pension for the Blind holding office upon the effective date of this act shall continue in office until the expiration of their terms for which they were appointed unless they are previously removed in the manner provided by law

Section 18 The provisions of this act shall become effective on the first day of July one thousand nine hundred and thirty-five

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the report?

Mr. REED (Dauphin). Mr. President, I wish to say on behalf of the Senate conferees that we have accepted the bill, almost without change, as it passed the House of Representatives. It is not the bill which the Senate passed, but it is their belief that the condition of the blind of Pennsylvania will be benefited under this bill. We have agreed to it as the best bill which can be secured at this session for the assistance and relief of the blind, and, therefore, we ask that the conference report be agreed to by the Senate.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the report?

Section 19 This act shall take effect immediately

And the amendments made thereto having been printed as required by the Constitution,

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, I wish to explain to the Senate that this bill, House Bill No. 2513, has been amended for municipal authority throughout the whole State of Pennsylvania. Other bills were in the House but they did not pass. This bill is a companion bill to House Bill No. 2514, now amended to take care of the entire situation as covered by some twenty-six other bills.

Mr. THOMPSON (Centre). Mr. President, I wish to add my voice to the voice of the Senator from Tioga, Mr. Owlett, in requesting the Senate to pass this bill. The Senator from Tioga, Mr. Owlett, in requesting the Senate to pass this bill, stated that a number of bills were introduced in the House and passed by the House calculated to provide for all of the different interests connected with the Federal Works program. Unfortunately, in my judgment, these bills have not been able to pass, but we feel that even though we cannot get all that is desired in the situation, that a half loaf, a portion of a loaf, is better than none, and we hope that the Senate will pass this bill.

And the amendments made thereto having been printed as required by the Constitution,

On the qeustion,

Shall the bill pass finally?

The yeas and nays were taken agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, and were as follows, viz:

Chapman,

A majority of all the Senators having voted "aye" the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk return said bill to the House of Representatives with information that the Senate has passed the same with amendments in which the concurrence of the House is requested.

Mr. THOMPSON (Centre). Mr. President, I would like to call up for action at this time on page 6 of the Calendar Senate Bill No. 1686 (House Bill No. 2514). This si a companion bill to the bill that we have just acted on and it might be well to have the two bills go over to the House together. I ask the Senate likewise to vote for this bill.

The PRESIDENT. The Chair advised that there was an error in the printing of this bill, one line was dropped and it is being reprinted. It will be up from the printer shortly.

Mr. THOMPSON (Centre). Mr. President I withdraw my request.

Agreeably to order,

The Senate resumed the consideration of Senate Bill No. 1361 (House Bill No. 2062), as follows:

subsection (b) one of this section except when arranged in accordance with the practice specified in subsection (e)

(d) All road lighting beams shall be so aimed and of sufficient intensity to reveal a person or vehicle at a distance of at least one hundred (100) feet ahead

(e) All road lighting equipment manufactured and installed on and after January first one thousand nine hundred thirty-six shall be so arranged that whenever any beam is used which is not in conformity with subsection (a) of this section two (2) white or yellow lights one (1) on each side of the vehicle visible to an oncoming driver and to the driver of said vehicle shall be lighted except that other suitable alternate means may be provided for indicating to the driver behind the light when such beams are on Indicator lights shall not be connected otherwise than as required in this paragraph Beam indicator lights and front parking lights shall be so connected that neither of said lights shall be lighted when a beam is in use which conforms with subsection (b) one of this section

Penalty Any person violating any of the provisions of this section shall upon summary conviction before a magistrate be sentenced to pay a fine of ten ($10.00) dollars and costs of prosecution and in default of the payment thereof shall undergo imprisonment for not more than five (5) days

Section 802.2 Use of Multiple Beam Road Lighting Equipment

(a) Whenever a motor vehicle is being operated on a roadway or shoulder adjacent thereto during the times specified in section eight hundred one (801) the driver shall use a distribution of light or composite beam directed high enough and of sufficient intensity to reveal persons and vehicles at a safe distance in advance of the vehicle subject to the following requirements and limitations

(b) Whenever the driver of a vehicle approaches an oncoming vehicle within five hundred (500) feet such driver shall use a distribution of light or composite beam so aimed that the glaring rays are not projected into the eyes of the oncoming driver and in no case shall the high intensity portion which is projected to the left of the prolongation of the extreme left side of the vehicle be aimed higher than the center of the lamp from which it comes at a distance of twenty-five (25) feet ahead and in no case higher than a level of forty-two (42) inches above the level upon which the vehicle stands at a distance of seventy-five (75) feet ahead

Penalty Any person violating any of the provisions of this section shall upon summary conviction before a magistrate be sentenced to pay a fine of ten ($10) dollars and costs of prosecution and in default of the payment thereof shall undergo imprisonment for not more than five (5) days

Section 802.3 Single Beam Road Lighting Equipment Headlamps arranged to provide a single distribution of light not supplemented by auxiliary driving lamps shall be permitted on motor vehicles manufactured and sold prior to one (1) year after the effective date of this act in lieu of multiple beam road lighting equipment herein specified if the single distribution of light complies with the following requirements and limitations

(a) The headlamps shall be so aimed that when the vehicle is not loaded none of the high intensity portion of the light shall at a distance of twenty-five (25) feet ahead project higher than a level of five (5) inches below the level of the center of the lamp from which it comes and in no case higher than forty-two (42) inches above the level on which the vehicle stands at a distance of seventy-five (75) feet ahead

(b) The intensity shall be sufficient to reveal persons and vehicles at a distance of at least two hundred (200) feet

(c) Any motor vehicle may be operated under the conditions specified in section eight hundred one (801) when equipped with two (2) lighted lamps upon the front thereof capable of revealing persons and objects seventy-five (75) feet ahead in lieu of lamps otherwise required Provided however that at no time shall be it operated at a speed in excess of twenty (20) miles per hour.

Penalty Any person violating any of the provisions of this section shall upon summary conviction before a magistrate be sentenced to pay a fine of ten ($10) dollars and costs of prosecution and in default of the payment thereof shall undergo imprisonment for not more than five (5) days

Section 802.4 Number of Driving Lamps Required or Permitted

(a) At all times specified in section eight hundred one (801) at least two (2) lighted lamps shall be displayed one on each side at the front of every motor vehicle except when such vehicle is parked subject to the regulations governing lights on parked vehicles

(b) Whenever a motor vehicle equipped with headlamps as herein required is also equipped with any auxiliary lamps or a spot lamp or any other lamp on the front thereof projecting a beam of an intensity greater than three hundred (300) candlepower not more than a total of four (4) of any such lamps on the front of a vehicle shall be lighted at any one time when upon a highway

(c) Any lighted lamp or illuminating device upon a motor vehicle other than headlamps spot lamps or auxiliary driving lamps which projects a beam of light of an intensity greater than three hundred (300) candlepower shall be so directed that no part of the beam will strike the level of the roadway on which the vehicle stands at a distance of more than seventy-five (75) feet from the vehicle

(d) Any motor vehicle may be equipped with not more than two (2) side cowl or fender lamps which shall emit an amber or white light without glare

(e) Any motor vehicle may be equipped with not more than one (1) running board courtesy lamp on each side thereof which shall emit a white or amber light without glare

(f) Any motor vehicle may be equipped with a back-up lamp either separately or in combination with another lamp except that no such back-up lamp shall be continuously lighted when the motor vehicle is in forward motion

(g) No person shall operate or move any vehicle except fire department and fire patrol apparatus upon a highway with a red light displayed on the front thereof

Penalty Any person violating any of the provisions of this section shall upon summary conviction before a magistrate be sentenced to pay a fine of ten ($10) dollars and costs of prosecution and in default of the payment thereof shall undergo imprisonment for not more than five (5) days

Section 17 That section eight hundred three of the said act is hereby repealed [Section 803 Requirements as to Head Lamps and Auxiliary Driving Lamps]

[(a) The head lamps or head lamp of motor vehicles shall be so constructed arranged adjusted and attached that except as provided in this act they will at all times mentioned in this act and under normal atmospheric conditions and on a level road produce a driving light sufficient to render clearly discernible all vehicles persons or substantial objects one hundred sixty (160) feet ahead but shall not project a glaring or dazzling light to persons in front of such head lamps or head lamp Provided That for motorcycles the distance at which vehicles persons or substantial objects shall be clearly discernible shall be one hundred fifteen (115) feet]

[(b) Head lamps or head lamp shall be deemed to comply with the foregoing provisions prohibiting glaring and dazzling lights if no part of the main bright portion of the headlamp beam rises above a horizontal plane passing through the lamp centers parallel to the level of the highway upon which the loaded vehicle stands and in no case higher than forty-two (42) inches at a distance seventy-five (75) feet ahead of the vehicle]

[(c) Whenever a motor vehicle is being operated upon a highway or a portion thereof which is sufficiently lighted to reveal vehicles persons or substantial objects on such highway at a distance of two hundred (200) feet ahead of motor vehicle it shall be permissible to dim the headlamps or headlamp or to tilt the beams or beams downward or to substitute therefor the light from side lights or auxiliary driving lamps subject to the restrictions as to [road beams and auxiliary driving lamps as provided in this act]

[(d) Restrictions on Lamps Bulbs and Reflectors Any device other than headlamps spot lamps or auxiliary driving lamps which projects a beam of light of an intensity greater than twenty-five (25) candlepower shall be so directed that no part of the beam will strike the level of the surface on which the vehicle stands at a distance of more than fifty (50) feet from the vehicle]

[Every electric lamp or bulb used in any head lamp or auxiliary driving lamp on any motor vehicle shall not exceed the mean spherical candlepower designated in certificate of approval as issued by the secretary]

[Every electric lamp or bulb used in any side light shall not exceed four (4) mean spherical candlepower]

[Every reflector which is used as a part of any head lamp shall have a highly polished silvered or glass or other reflecting surface and shall be free from dents rust and other imperfections]

[(e) Whenever a motor vehicle meets another vehicle an any highway it shall be permissible to tilt the beams or beams of the headlamps or headlamp downward or to substitute therefor the light from auxiliary driving lamps subject to the requirement that the tilted beams or beam or the beams from the auxiliary driving lamps shall give sufficient illumination under normal atmospheric conditions and on an approximately level highway to render clearly discernible vehicles persons or substantial objects seventy-five (75) feet ahead of the motor vehicle but shall not project a glaring or dazzling light to persons in front of the motor vehicle Provided That at all times required in this act at least two (2) lights shall be displayed on the front of and on opposite sides of every motor vehicle other than a motorcycle which shall display at least one (1) light as provided in this act]

[Penalty Any person violating any of the provisions of this section shall upon summary conviction before a magistrate be sentenced to pay a fine of ten ($10.00) dollars and costs of prosecution and in default of the payment thereof shall undergo imprisonment for not more than five (5) days]

Section 18 That section 804 of the said act is hereby repealed [Section 804 Acetylene Lights]

[Motor vehicles may be equipped with two (2) acetylene headlamps of approximately equal candlepower when equipped with clear plain glass fronts bright spherical or Monaghan mirrors not to exceed six (6) inches in diameter and standard acetylene five-eights (5/8) foot burners not more and not less and which do not project a glaring or dazzling light into the eyes of approaching persons except that motorcycles may be equipped with one (1) acetylene headlamp of these specifications]

[Penalty Any person violating any of the provisions of this section shall upon summary conviction before a magistrate be sentenced to pay a fine of ten ($10) dollars and costs of prosecution and in default of the payment thereof shall undergo imprisonment for not more than five (5) days]

Section 19 That section 807 of said act is hereby amended to read as follows

Section 807 Revocation of Certificates of Approval of Lighting Devices

(a) Any certificate of approval however heretofore or hereafter issued may be revoked by the secretary after a hearing before the secretary or his representative of which the person named therein or his successor in interest shall be given reasonable notice or opportunity to hear or to be heard upon the ground that the lighting device reflector or mechanical signal device does not comply with the provisions of this act regulations adopted or is not being supplied in production in accordance with specifications original blueprint assemblies or sample devices originally submitted However revocation of certificates of approval of devices heretofore or hereafter approved shall not take effect until three (3) months after decision of the secretary revoking same

(b) The secretary may adopt uniform standard specifications for head lamps auxiliary driving lamps rear lamps signal lamps reflectors and may promulgate certain rules and regulations not inconsistent with this act to govern his decision in approving any lighting device reflector or mechanical signal device or revoking any certificate of approval issued for such devices

(c) Certificates approving each type of head lamp device hereafter issued by the secretary will expire and be void after [two (2)] four (4) years from date of issue unless the manufacturer has prior to the expiration date made application for renewal of such certificate furnishing two (2) pair of samples for test purposes in accordance with this act together with the fee provided in this act and new certificate of approval has been issued

(d) Certificates approving each type of auxiliary driving lamp rear lamp mechanical signal device reflector and signal lamp hereafter issued by the secretary will not expire [and be void after two (2) years from date of issue unless the manufacturer has prior to the expiration date made application for renewal of any such certificate furnishing two (2) samples for test purposes in accordance with this act together with fee provided in this act and new certificate of approval has been issued] until revoked for cause by the secretary

(e) When no renewal application is made and when an application for renewal of certificate of approval is refused the head lamp auxiliary driving lamp rear lamp mechanical signal device reflector or signal lamp will become illegal for use on motor vehicles after [two (2)] six (6) years from date of expiration of certificate Provided however new motor vehicles will not be titled unless the lighting devices are of an approved type for which certificates of approval are in effect at the time of application for title

Section 20 That subsection (a) of section eight hundred eight of said act be and the same is hereby amended to read as follows

Section 808 Enforcement and Authority to Refuse Title or Registration

(a) A head lamp or auxiliary driving lamp arranged to provide a single distribution of light will be presumed to project a glaring or dazzling light if the top of any main beam of light projected by it is at a distance of twenty-five (25) feet ahead of the motor vehicle on an approximately level stretch of highway projected on the body of a person or on a motor vehicle or on any object at a height greater than the distance of the centers of the lamps from the highway A head lamp or auxiliary driving lamp arranged to provide a single distribution of light and mounted on a motor vehicle at a height higher than forty-two (42) inches above the highway will be presumed to project a glaring or dazzling light if the top of the beam of light projected by it on an approximately level stretch of highway be higher than forty-two (42) inches above the highway seventy-five (75) feet ahead of the vehicle

Section 21 That subsections (c) (d) (e) (f) (g) (h) and (i) of section eight hundred eleven of said act be and the same is hereby amended to read as follows

Section 811 Brakes

(c) [All such brakes shall be maintained in good working order and shall conform to regulations further provided in this act] Every trailer or semi-trailer of a gross weight of three thousand (3,000) pounds or more when operated upon a highway shall be equipped with brakes adequate to control the movement of and to stop and to hold such vehicle for at least fifteen (15) minutes and so designed as to be applied by the driver of the towing motor vehicle from its cab and said brakes shall be so designed and connected that in case of an accidental breakaway of the towed vehicle the brakes shall be automatically applied

(d) [On and after July first one thousand nine hundred and thirty-one all new motor vehicles titled or registered in this Commonwealth shall be equipped with brakes as respectively required in this act for different classes of motor vehicles capable of conforming to braking requirements further provided in this act] Every new motor vehicle trailer or semi-trailer sold in this Commonwealth on and after January first one thousand nine hundred thirty-six and operated upon the highways shall be equipped with service brakes upon all wheels of every such vehicle except any motorcycle and except that any semi-trailer of less than one thousand five hundred (1,500) pounds gross weight need not be equipped with brakes

(e) On a dry hard approximately level stretch of highway free from loose material [the service brake shall be capable of stopping the motor vehicle from a speed of twenty (20) miles per hour within a distance of fifty (50) feet or at a rate which corresponds to such performance] where the grade does not exceed one (1) per centum the service brakes upon any motor vehicle or combination of vehicles except as herein provided shall be adequate to stop such vehicle or vehicles when traveling at a speed of twenty (20) miles per hour within a distance of thirty (30) feet or at a rate corresponding to such performance

(f) [On a dry hard approximately level stretch of highway free from loose material the emergency brake shall be capable of stopping the motor vehicle from a speed of twenty (20) miles per hour within a distance of seventy-five (75) feet or at a rate which corresponds to such performance] Under the above conditions the emergency brake shall be adequate to stop such vehicle or vehicles within a distance of fifty-five (55) feet and said emergency brake shall be adequate to hold such vehicle or vehicles stationary upon any grade upon which operated

(g) [Commercial motor vehicles and truck tractors with semi-trailers attached exceeding seven thousand (7000) pounds gross weight shall be capable of stopping on a dry hard approximately level stretch of highway free from loose material within the following distances or at rates corresponding in each instance to the several performances specified

Within fifty (50) feet from twenty (20) miles per hour upon simultaneous application of the service and emergency brakes

Within seventy-five (75) feet from twenty (20) miles per hour upon application of the service brake alone

Within seventy-five (75) feet from twenty (20) miles per hour upon application of the emergency brake alone] Under the above conditions the service brakes upon a motor vehicle equipped with two wheel brakes only and when permitted hereunder shall be adequate to stop the vehicle within a distance of forty (40) feet and the emergency brake shall be adequate to stop the vehicle within a distance of fifty-five (55) feet

(h) [When any motor vehicle with trailer attached is operated in combination the application of brakes shall be construed to mean the application of all brakes on the motor vehicle and trailer which are normally capable of being operated simultaneously by the operator] All braking distances specified in this section shall apply to all vehicles mentioned whether such vehicles are not loaded or are loaded to the maximum capacity permitted under this act

(i) All brakes shall be maintained in good working order and shall be so adjusted as to operate as equally as practicable with respect to the wheels on opposite sides of the vehicle

Penalty Any person violating any of the provisions of this section shall upon summary conviction before a magistrate be sentenced to pay a fine of ten ($10) dollars and costs of prosecution and in default of the payment thereof shall undergo imprisonment for not more than five (5) days

Section 22 That section eight hundred twelve of said act be and the same is hereby amended to read as follows

Section 812 Brake Enforcement

(a) [The brakes on a motor vehicle will be presumed to be unsafe and to require immediate attention if on a dry approximately level stretch of highway free from loose material the service brake will not be capable of stopping the motor vehicle from a speed of twenty (20) miles per hour within a distance of fifty (50) feet and the emergency brake under the same conditions within a distance of seventy-five (75) feet or at a rate which corresponds to such performance except that the brakes on commercial motor vehicles and truck tractors with semi-trailers attached exceeding seven thousand (7000) pounds gross weight will be presumed to be unsafe and to require immediate attention if on a dry hard approximately level stretch of highway free from loose material both brakes applied simultaneously will not be capable of stopping such vehicles from a speed of twenty (20) miles per hour within a distance of fifty (50) feet and the service and emergency brakes applied separately under the same conditions within a distance of seventy-five (75) feet or at a rate which corresponds to such performance or when on a descending grade not exceeding ten (10) per centum motor vehicle will drift with either service or emergency brake applied singly] It shall be unlawful for any person to operate a motor vehicle or a combination of vehicles upon the highways of this Commonwealth with brakes not conforming with the requirements of this act

(b) It shall be unlawful for any person to operate a motor vehicle without required number of brakes in good working condition The owner or operator of any motor vehicle who is notified by a peace officer that such brake or brakes are improperly adjusted or are unsafe or unfit or in need of correction adjustment or repairs shall be allowed forty-eight (48) hours within which to correct adjust or repair such brakes to conform with the requirements of this act To submit a certificate to the peace officer giving the notification issued or executed by an official brake adjusting station showing that within forty-eight (48) hours after such notification the brakes have been corrected adjusted or repaired to conform with the requirements of this act shall relieve the owner or operator from arrest Unless such certificate is received by the peace officer within five (5) days from the date of notification showing that the brakes have been corrected adjusted or repaired as required in this act information for arrest will be made Provided That when service and emergency brakes applied together will not stop a motor vehicle or combination of vehicles within distances defined in this act or hold a motor vehicle or combination of vehicles [on a descending grade not exceeding ten (10) per centum] stationary on any grade upon which operated the owner or operator may be required to make temporary correction adjustment or repairs before being permitted to proceed with the motor vehicle or combination of vehicles

Penalty Any person violating any of the provisions of this section shall upon summary conviction before a magistrate be sentenced to pay a fine of ten ($10) dollars and costs of prosecution and in default of the payment thereof shall undergo imprisonment for not more than five (5) days

Section 23 That subsections (f) (g) (h) and (i) of section eight hundred thirteen of said act as amended by the act approved the twenty-second day of June one thousand nine hundred thirty-one (Pamphlet Laws seven hundred fifty-one) are hereby further amended to read as follows

Section 813 Official Inspection Stations

(f) It shall be unlawful for any [such designated official inspection station] person to furnish give or sell to any owner or operator of a motor vehicle trailer or semi-trailer or to place in or on any motor vehicle trailer or semi-trailer a certificate of inspection and approval unless an official inspection of its mechanism and equipment shall have been made and the motor vehicle trailer or semi-trailer conforms with the provisions of this act It shall be unlawful for any such designated official inspection station to furnish loan give or sell a certificate or certificates of inspection and approval to any other such designated official inspection station or any other persons except those entitled to receive them under the provisions of this act

[(g) It shall be unlawful in case of transfer of ownership of any used motor vehicle for the owner to submit with his application for registration a certificate of inspection and approval unless an official inspection shall have been made and the vehicle found to conform with the provisions of this act]

[(h)] (g) Any peace officer who shall be in uniform and shall exhibit his badge or other sign of authority may stop any motor vehicle trailer or semi-trailer and require the owner or operator to demonstrate that such vehicles conform with the provisions of this act If such demonstration discloses the necessity for corrections adjustments or repairs to such vehicle the owner shall be notified that unless a certificate issued or executed by a representative of an official inspection station is submitted within five (5) days to the peace officer indicating that the necessary corrections adjustments or repairs have been made information for the arrest of the owner or operator will be made for the specific violation or violations of this act noted at the time of modification Provided That when service and emergency brakes applied simultaneously will not stop a motor vehicle trailer or semi-trailer within distance defined in this act or hold a motor vehicle trailer or semi-trailer on a descending grade not exceeding ten (10) per centum or when the lighting equipment is glaring or insufficient or not in operation or is not equipped with a mirror or windshield wiper as defined and required in this act the owner or operator may be required to correct the faulty condition before being permitted to proceed with the vehicle and may be prosecuted for the specific violation of this act

[(i)] (h) An official inspection station and the records thereof shall be open for inspection by any peace officer or department employe The owner of an official inspection station shall file with the department on a form prescribed and furnished by the department such information relating to daily inspections as the secretary may require

Section 24 That subsections (b) and (g) of section eight hundred twenty-three of said act as amended by the act approved the twenty-second day of June one thousand nine hundred thirty-one (Pamphlet Laws seven hundred fifty-one) are hereby further amended to read as follows

Section 823 Official Inspections

(b) If such inspections disclose the necessity for adjustments corrections or repairs in order to bring the motor vehicle in conformance with the provisions of this act it shall be compulsory upon the owner to have such adjustments corrections or repairs made within the [period designated in the hereinbefore mentioned proclamation] periods required in this act

(g) During the period designated in the hereinbefore mentioned proclamation any peace officer who shall be in uniform and shall exhibit his badge or other sign of authority may stop any motor vehicle and require the owner or operator to display an official certificate or other satisfactory proof of inspection for the motor vehicle being operated It shall be unlawful for any such certificate to be displayed on a motor vehicle or by the owner or operator unless an official inspection of its mechanism or equipment shall have been made and the motor vehicle conforms to the provisions of this act

Section 25 That section eight hundred twenty-four of said act as amended by the act approved the twenty-fifth day of May one thousand nine hundred thirty-three (Pamphlet Laws one thousand sixty-four) is hereby further amended to read as follows

Section 824 Danger and Caution Signals

(a) Every motor bus and every motor omnibus for the carriage of passengers for hire except taxicabs and every commercial motor vehicle having a carrying capacity of two tons or over when operated upon a highway outside of a business or residence district at any time from one (1) hour after sunset to one (1) hour before sunrise shall be equipped with [at least two red or yellow burning danger or caution signals with friction cap ignition similar in type to a time-burning railway fusee signal and so constructed as to burn with a brilliant red or yellow light for not less than fifteen (15) minutes

Whenever any such vehicle becomes disabled while within the limits of the traveled part of a highway to such an extent that it cannot proceed under its own power and its lighting is so disabled that it constitutes a menace to other vehicular traffic the operator thereof shall cause to be continuously displayed on the surface of the highway the red or yellow-burning danger or caution signals as herein required in such manner as to prevent personal injuries loss of life and damage to property by collision a sufficient number of flares not less than three (3) or electric lanterns or other signals capable of continuously producing three warning lights each visible from a distance of at least five hundred (500) feet for a period of at least eight (8) hours

Every such flare lantern electric flashing signal or other signal shall be of a type approved by the Secretary and he shall publish lists of those devices which he has approved as adequate for the purposes of this section

(b) Whenever any such vehicle and its lighting equipment are disabled during the period when lighted lamps must be displayed on vehicles and such vehicle cannot immediately be removed from the main traveled portion of a highway outside of a business or residence district or if the lighting equipment on any such vehicle is not disabled but due to its position upon the highway or by reason of contours or curves in such highway it may constitute a menace to other vehicular traffic the operator or other person in charge of such vehicle shall cause such flares lanterns or other signals to be lighted and placed upon the highway one (1) at a distance of approximately one hundred (100) feet in advance of such vehicle one (1) at a distance of approximately one hundred (100) feet to the rear of the vehicle and the third upon the highway side of the vehicle except that if the vehicle is transporting flammables and no open burning flare shall be placed adjacent to any such last mentioned vehicle

(c) No person shall at any time operate a vehicle transporting explosives as a cargo or part of a cargo upon a highway unless it carries electric lanterns or electric flashing signals as herein required but such electric lanterns must be capable of producing a red light and shall be displayed upon the highway when and as required in this section

Penalty Any owner or operator who shall fail to comply with any of the provisions of this section shall upon summary conviction before a magistrate be sentenced to pay a fine of twenty-five ($25) dollars and costs of prosecution and in default of the payment thereof shall undergo imprisonment for not more than ten (10) days

Section 26 That subsection (f) of Section nine hundred two of said act as amended by the act approved the twenty-second day of June one thousand nine hundred thirty-one (Pamphlet Laws seven hundred fifty-one) is hereby further amended to read as follows

Section 902 Size of Vehicles and Loads

(f) It shall be unlawful for any person to transport on a motor vehicle trailer or semi-trailer operated for the carriage of passengers for hire a load [in excess] of twenty-five (25) per centum in excess of the registered seating capacity or for any person to cause or permit any such operation Provided however That a child under the age of six years shall not be counted as a person when computing load on any such vehicle

Section 27 That subsection (a) of Section 905 of said act as amended by the act approved the twenty-second day of June one thousand nine hundred thirty-one (Pamphlet Laws seven hundred fifty-one) is hereby further amended to read as follows

Section 905 Permits for Excessive Size and Weight

(a) The Secretary of Highways of this Commonwealth and local authorities in their respective jurisdictions may in their discretion upon application in writing accompanied by the fee provided in this act and good cause being shown therefor issue a special permit in writing authorizing the applicant to operate or move either a vehicle or combination of vehicles or a vehicle and load or a combination of vehicles and their load or loads of a size [and] or weight exceeding the maximum specified in this act upon any highway under the jurisdiction of and for the maintenance of which the authorities granting the permit are responsible When a permit has been issued by the Secretary of Highways no other authorities shall require any further or additional permit for any portion of the route specified therein Every such permit shall be issued for a single trip and shall designate the route to be traversed subject to such rules [and] regulations [and any other] restrictions or conditions as shall be deemed necessary by the authority granting such permit Provided That upon request included in the application a combination permit may be issued for a single continuous round trip whether or not a load or loads may be transported for the entire trip but no substantial increase in the size or weight of vehicle or combination of vehicles or of load shall be made between intermediate points without supplemental permit [including] The movement of any vehicle or load requiring a permit shall impose the obligation on the [part of the] permittee to restore or replace any section of highway or bridge damaged as a result of such movement whether or not [the same was] such damage may be attributable to negligence on the part of the permittee [as shall be deemed necessary by the authority granting such permits] Every such permit shall be carried in the vehicle to which it refers and shall be open to inspection by any peace officer or employe of the Department of Highways this Commonwealth or to any person having collision with or suffering injury from such vehicle

Section 28 That section 906 of said act be and the same is hereby amended to read as follows

Section 906 Special Limitations

(a) No vehicle shall be operated upon any highway where such operation has been prohibited or restricted by the Secretary of Highways or local authorities as set forth in section one thousand one hundred and one (1101) of this act when appropriate signs are erected and maintained

(b) It shall be unlawful for any person to drive or cause to be driven upon any bridge causeway or viaduct any vehicle which together with its load exceeds the maximum weight permitted and mentioned in the posted signs erected and maintained in accordance with the requirements as set forth in section one thousand one hundred and two (1102) of this act

Penalty Any person violating any of the provisions of this section shall upon summary conviction before a magistrate be sentenced to pay a fine of [ten ($10)] fifty ($50) dollars and costs of prosecution and in default of the payment thereof shall undergo imprisonment for not more than [five (5)] ten (10) days

Section 29 That subsection (b) and (c) of Section 1002 of said act as amended by the act approved the twenty-second day of June one thousand nine hundred thirty-one (Pamphlet Laws seven hundred fifty-one) is hereby further amended to read as follows

Section 1002 Restrictions as to Speed

(b) Subject to the provisions of subsection (a) of this section speeds in excess of the maximum limits hereinafter provided shall be unlawful

1 Ten (10) miles an hour speed limit

All vehicles when passing any interurban or street car taking on or discharging passengers at an intersection where a safety zone has been established or where traffic is controlled by a peace officer or a traffic signal

2 Fifteen (15) miles an hour speed limit

All vehicles except those restricted by this act to lower maximum speeds when passing a school building during school recess or while children are going to or leaving school during opening or closing hours

3 Twenty (20) miles an hour speed limit

All vehicles except those restricted by this act to lower maximum speeds within business or residence districts where signs erected by the [proper] Department of Highways or local authorities on the righthand side of the highway facing the traffic to be controlled are displayed bearing the words "TWENTY MILE SPEED LIMIT" in letters not less than four (4) inches in height This limit shall be observed for a distance beyond said sign for not more than one-eighth (⅛) of a mile An additional sign shall be placed at intervals not greater than one-eighth (⅛) of a mile and any extension of such limited zone shall be marked by additional signs in like manner At the end of such limited zone there shall be a sign similarly placed as to traffic bearing the words "END OF TWENTY MILE SPEED LIMIT" in letters not less than four (4) inches in height

All vehicles except those restricted by this act to lower maximum speeds when approaching within two hundred (200) feet of a railway grade crossing where sign erected by the proper authorities is displayed bearing the words "TWENTY MILE SPEED LIMIT" in letters not less than four (4) inches in height

All vehicles except those being operated on through highways and those restricted by this act to lower maximum speeds when approaching within fifty (50) feet and in traversing an intersection of highways within a business or residence district when the driver's view is obstructed except on highways controlled at intersections by peace officers or traffic signal A driver's view shall be deemed to be obstructed if during the last fifty (50) feet of his approach to such intersection he does not have a clear and uninterrupted view of such intersection and of the traffic upon all of the highways entering such intersection for a distance of two hundred (200) feet from such intersection

4 Forty (40) miles an hour speed limit

All vehicles except those otherwise restricted by this act to lower maximum speeds

(c) Subject to the provisions of subsections (a) and (b) of this section it shall be unlawful for the following kinds of types and classes of vehicles to [exceed the maximum speed limits] be operated at a greater speed than hereinafter provided

For determining the maximum speed of a combination of vehicles the lower speed provided for either of the vehicles in the combination shall govern

Mr. REED (Washington). Mr. President, I second the motion.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

Mr. HUFFMAN. Mr. President, I think that all members of the Senate have agreed that we need $8,000,000 more money to balance the budget, and that the one mill personal property tax as we provided for it in these amendments will render to us $8,000,000. The bill as it is before the Senate provides that the personal property tax of one mill shall be collected by the county. We have had approved a four mill personal property tax that is collected by the counties, and this amendment provides an additional mill to be collected by the State for the use of the State, which, as I said, will produce $8,000,000 if so collected, and will balance the budget.

Our objections to the bill as it is before the Senate, providing for the collection of this one mill by the counties, are that, first, the counties will not collect the tax. They have not collected the tax in the past, under he four-mill provision, and we assume they will not collect the additional one mill. For instance, up in my county of Monroe we collect, at the present time, about twenty per cent. of the taxes that are due on personal property in the county; and I venture to say that in the country counties, outside of Philadelphia, perhaps, and those adjacent to Pittsburgh, that is about the proportion of taxes collected on this class of property. And therefore we figure that with the bill as it is now the tax will be handled in the same manner, because it will be handled by the same people,—which would be objectionable.

Under the four-mill tax in Pennsylvania at the present time there is but $13,000,000 collected—about $13,500,000 —from the sixty-seven counties. Figured out on the basis of four mills this returns only about $3,500,000 per mill, and if we had an additional mill, it would bring in, on that basis, only $3,500,000 additional, and we need $8,-000,000. There is about $8,000,000,000 of property of this class that is subject to this tax, and if we collect the one mill additional we will have $8,000,000.

Furthermore, the Commonwealth, at the present time, is in debt because of borrowed moneys for which we are indebted to every county in Pennsylvania; and I believe that if the counties would collect this one mill they will retain the money, instead of transmitting it to the State, they will retain the money which they have a legal right to do, as an offset against the sums due them at the present time, resulting, of course, in an entire collapse of the collection of this one mill personal property tax.

It seems to me the logical thing to do is to put through these amendments, allowing us to collect the one-mill tax, which does not change the bill at all with respect to the present taxes collected by and for the use of the counties.

Mr. WOODWARD. Mr. President, I purpose voting, at every opportunity, against an increase in the four-mill tax, and for various reasons. One of the principal reasons is this: In the early days of the session I introduced Senate Bills Nos. 99 and 100 to correct evils in the four-mill tax, and I got such scant consideration from the Democratic House that I cannot help feeling sore about it. I visited the Chairman of the Committee on Ways and Means when he was ill, and sent him flowers; and he never reported the bills.

Senate Bill No. 100 was drafted by the Board of Revision of Taxes in Philadelphia to correct a glaring fault in this four-mill tax.

So my decision is, if the Democratic Administration refuses to improve this four-mill tax, I am relieved of any responsibility, and am free to vote against the increase of one mill.

Mr. McCLURE. Mr. President, I desire to interrogate the Senator from Monroe, Mr. Huffman.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Monroe, Mr. Huffman, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. HUFFMAN. Mr. President, I will.

Mr. McCLURE. Mr. President, will the Senator from Monroe, Mr. Huffman, give some idea to the Senate as to how much it will cost the State to collect this tax?

Mr. HUFFMAN. Mr. President, my information is that it will not cost the State anything. That is to say, the machinery is set up for the collection of taxes by the Commonwealth. If we collect this tax independently of all other taxes, it will cost about $500,000. Of course, I am referring to the clerk hire and matters of that kind. Of course, the plan would be to have the taxpayer, upon the receipt of a blank, to file his report of his taxes by mail to Harrisburg, in the same manner that the same taxpayer makes his report to the Department of Revenue at Washington.

Mr. McCLURE. Mr. President, is it not true that that is the same system which is followed today by the Federal Government in the collection of income tax? Is it not also a fact that it costs the Federal Government probably one or two per cent.—I do not know just the sum—to collect the income tax?

Mr. HUFFMAN. Mr. President, I cannot say with respect to that. I have heard it said, in our little conferences, that this will cost a lot of money, and we have a great many inspectors over the State; but I think that is a bugaboo.

Mr. McCLURE. Mr. President, will the Senator from Monroe, Mr. Huffman, explain how the State will proceed to collect this tax if the taxpayer throws away the paper which he receives—the form? Will the Senator explain to the Senate the procedure the State will follow if the taxpayer disregards the form sent him?

Mr. HUFFMAN. Mr. President, it becomes the duty, as it is now under the present personal property tax law, of each taxpayer to make a report. This does not change the law in any respect, except that he makes a report on the one mill to the Commonwealth.

Mr. McCLURE. Mr. President, the amount the Senator from Monroe, Mr. Huffman, mentioned—$500,000, was given to me as the possible cost of the collection of this tax, and I am not going to dispute that figure; it is quite a sum of money without trying to add anything on to it. I also, at the same time, want to call to the attention of the members of the Senate that this tax is an additional one-mill tax to the four-mill tax which is now collected by the county; and the bill which is now before the Senate, which the Senator from Monroe proposes to amend, adds one mill to that four-mill tax, which the county is collecting, at the same time, and it will cost the counties no additional money to collect this tax; because a man, if he sends a check, will send a check for either $4.00 or $5.00, or whatever the sum is,—it will be just 25% more than it is today,—and there will be no further need for tax collectors going throughout the State at a cost to the State of half a million dollars to collect this tax.

Mr. President, I cannot understand with what authority the Senator from Monroe, Mr. Huffman, states that the counties will be able to retain part of this tax that will be collected under this bill, if it is passed, because this particular bill, and the money withheld by the Commonwealth for relief purposes, and from the county in the form of liquid fuel tax, has absolutely nothing to do but just go into the same counties, and as part of the same bookkeeping; and that statement is not well made.

Now, gentlemen, I can see no real necessity for building up here in Harrisburg another bureau, another personnel

—hundreds of men going throughout the State collecting one mill. Think of it! One mill! In many instances the bills sent out following the receipt of the form from the Commonwealth—these bills would only amount, in some instances, to $5.00 or $10.00, and I suppose a man is going to be supplied with one of these brown painted State cars, paid a livable wage, I hope, if he is employed to go around and collect $1.00 and $2.00 and $5.00, when this same money could be collected by the counties.

And, Mr. President, further, I would like to know the basis of the argument that this money can be better collected by the State than it can by the counties. The penalties in this bill and the penalties in the amendment, as I understand the amendment, are identical; a person is under no greater jeopardy to pay one way or the other, or not to pay; and it is inconceivable to me, and I fail to understand, the great desire of this Administration to collect this one-mill tax, and I propose to vote against it, and I hope the other members will do likewise, because we might as well have that $500,000, that half million dollars, to give to the starving of the State when we return here in less than a year to provide for further relief—and we all realize we will return, we will be here and we will have $500,000, a half million dollars, to begin on, which we do not have at this time.

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, I just want to call the Senate's attention to a provision of this bill, which will be the law in this State if this Senate votes for these amendments that were offered by the Senator from Monroe, Mr. Huffman.

This bill will authorize any department—permit any agent, rather, authorized in writing by the Department of Revenue, to examine the books, papers and records of any resident, or to verify the accuracy of any return made. If no return is made, by any taxable resident, within ten days after being notified to do so, it shall be the duty of the assessor to make a return for such taxable resident from the best information he can obtain. "He shall examine the records and lists of judgments and mortgages returned by the prothonotary and the recorder of deeds under this Act in the office of the Board, or remaining in their respective offices, and assess such defaulting taxable resident with the amounts of all such liens, with interest thereon, and add thereto the amount of all taxable property obtained from all other sources of information, which return the Board shall have power, and it shall be its duty, to revise and correct according to the best information it can obtain from the records in its office, or other sources; and it shall be the duty of the Board to send for such taxable resident and his papers and administer an oath or affirmation to him in such form as shall be prescribed by the Board, to which revised and corrected estimate return the Board shall add a penalty of fifty per centum, and the aggregate amount so obtained shall be the basis for taxation."

If we pass the amendments, members of the Senate, we are placing in the hands of the Department of Revenue at Harrisburg, and of any agent they may select, the right to go to every citizen in this Commonwealth and examine his papers and records. If a person has a $500 mortgage he saved up for, and some snooper wants to go there, they can subpoena him to come to their office, with his papers, so they can estimate what his return ought to be; and all this in order to collect the one-mill tax.

We have the machinery set up in this State today to collect this. It is true, as the Senator from Monroe, Mr. Huffman, has said, that this tax is uncollected in many counties; but the penalties are there, and if the one-mill tax is to go to the State of Pennsylvania, I think the State of Pennsylvania can see to it that it is collected by the counties. But are we ready at this time, after imposing a unique tax, to place this tax,—after imposing a whole long list of other taxes to add on top of the structure an additional one mill personal property tax, which is a tax on capital and not on income, which they have to pay whether they get any revenue from this personal property or not, which compels every citizen, small or large, to file a return down here in Harrisburg of what he has?

I want to say to you in all sincerity that any man in this Senate that votes for this bill, to make it become a law in this State, will rue the day he ever cast that vote.

Now, the Senator from Monroe, Mr. Huffman, states that if this is collected by the counties the counties might retain it because the State owes the counties some money. This tax is one of several taxes that could be levied to pay back to the counties this money. Suppose they did retain it. It will be just as apparent an asset, as it will be a portion of debt that the budget has wiped off. If they did retain it—and I do not think they can—it will not throw our budget out of balance, because the money will be applied against debt, for which this is one of the taxes that we would have to levy in order to pay such debt.

I think we are faced right here now with one of the most crucial problems of the Senate, when we decide whether we are going to add on one more burdensome tax. We all hate to pay taxes. You cannot just tax the rich. The poor and everybody else pays. And we are faced here now with the question of whether we are going to establish a new bureau, as the Senator from Delaware, Mr. McClure, said, with a whole horde of employes to go around this State and collect a measly one-mill tax on personal property; and give these collectors the right to enter into, thereafter, the home of every citizen in the Commonwealth. I shall vote "no" on this bill.

Mr. SORDONI. Mr. President and gentlemen of the Senate, I certainly have the greatest respect for the integrity and the sincerity of my good friend and colleague the Senator from Tioga, Mr. Owlett; I do, however, take issue with some of the statements he has made. First, I want to draw to your attention, if I may, to the fact that the question of the assessment of the tax is the same whether the county collects it or the State collects it; so that, that provision he speaks of is not at issue. The provision that is at issue is as to the amount of revenue that will be derived from the two different sources of the tax collection.

I draw to your attention, sir, that at the present time, with approximately $8,000,000,000 of personal property in the State of Pennsylvania, and since 1913, the counties of the State having authority to collect four mills, their average collections over the past few years have been $13,000,000, or approximately three million and a few hundred thousand per mill.

I have no interest in who is going to collect my taxes, for the simple reason that I expect to pay that which I should legally pay; but I am very much interested, Mr. President and gentlemen of the Senate, in compelling the individual who has not in the past been paying his just share of this tax. There are many counties in the State of Pennsylvania where not one single solitary penny of this four-mill tax is raised, and where the people of the county, the industries and the home-owners, are terribly overburdened with high taxes.

On the question of the State—their estimate that they will collect $8,000,000 on a one-mill tax will mean, following that provision, the counties will then get, instead of $13,000,000, $32,000,000 on the same basis. Deducting, at the present time, the $13,500,000 that is now collected by the counties, it will mean an increase of county receipts by $18,500,000.

Mr. President, we have just passed in this Senate a bill providing for an income tax to be distributed to the counties of the State for the relief of school taxes. I am sincerely interested in that bill, voted for it, and think it is fine; but I also pay my personal property tax, and why should I or any other honest citizen of this Commonwealth be compelled to pay not only my four-mill property tax but also an income tax, in order to shelter that individual in the county where this tax is not collected at the present time?

Mr. President, this is of vital importance to the State. To me it is not a question of Democrat or Republican, it is a question of efficiency, it is a question of who is going to collect this money most efficiently and effectively, and whether or not we as legislators are going to put a premium on the man who pays his tax, in favor of the man who does not pay his tax.

Last but not least, we have passed a bill authorizing the Governor to sell $50,000,000 worth of tax anticipation notes. It will be a financial impossibility to sell those notes if our budget is not balanced. We are shy $8,000,000. The financial officers, or the budget officers,—I do not know who makes the report—making the report on the budget as to whether or not it is balanced say that this $8,000,000 will balance the budget, providing, of course, that the State collects the tax; whereas if the counties collect the tax there will be an income of approximately $3,400,000, or whatever the figure may be, leaving our budget short by approximately $4,500,000.

Under those circumstances, Mr. President and gentlemen of the Senate, it is impossible for these tax anticipation notes to be sold to the bankers. Those notes can today be discounted for not more than 1½%. Our cash position at the present time, for the first year of the biennium, is not adequate; we are going to need additional funds. The Senator from Tioga, Mr. Owlett, put in a bill which I consider very fine, whereby the State may discount to the corporations owing the State money on next year's taxes certain reductions, to wit, 4%. Now, the difference, Mr. President, between 4% and 1½% is, as the Dutchman said, "quite a good deal considerable," and I feel that at a time like this, when we are trying sincerely to balance our budget and to put through every economy possible, that we must consider all the facts in the case on the economics and not on the politics.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, on the arguments that have been advanced here I am in a confused state of mind, because I thought what we were discussing was merely the question of whether or not this body should go into Committee of the Whole for the purpose of considering amendments.

The PRESIDENT. I might say to the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Shapiro, that the motion not only takes in the consideration of the question of going into Committee of the Whole but also the adoption of the amendments. Agreeing to this motion will adopt the amendments.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, that is correct; and the effect of that motion would be to adopt these amendments; and the effect of the adoption of the amendments would be to place the collection of this tax in the hands of the State and not in the hands of the counties. That being so, the question of whether or not a one-mill tax is a good tax obviously is irrelevant, in my opinion; and the question of whether or not the collection of this tax will create a hardship is also irrelevant. The Committee on Finance has had this bill before it three different times, and finally reported it out for action by the Senate; and whether that tax is justifiable, or a just tax, is a subject we will act upon when we come to vote on the bill. The question before us now is whether we should permit the State to collect this tax, if the bill be passed, or whether we should permit it to be collected by the counties.

The importance of this question lies in this fact: That if this tax realizes $8,000,000, as is suggested it will, by State collection, then the budget will be balanced. If the budget will be balanced the immediate cash necessities for the first year of this biennium may be borrowed on tax anticipation notes. None of these notes will be legal unless the fiscal officers of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania certify to the anticipated revenue from all sources and say, as a result of that certification or report, that there will be sufficient revenue anticipated, or that there is anticipated sufficient revenue to meet the amount borrowed on the notes.

The State officers will not, and cannot, certify to such a statement on the basis of the city returns, the local returns; because, in Philadelphia, for instance, the returns collected actually by the city upon its valuation of personal property—a valuation of approximately $81,000,000—does not conform fully with the assessed value according to the records of the State. That shows the city is not collecting the amount of tax it should; and the fiscal officers of the State, therefore, cannot certify that if the tax is collected by the counties there will be received the anticipated revenue shown on their books.

I have known the method used in Philadelphia for tax collection on the four-mill tax. Under the existing law, the four-mill tax law, the assessors send out a blank form. If no return is made by the individual to whom the form is sent, the assessors make out their own tax return and add a penalty. The only reason a man in Philadelphia gets a tax return is because there is some record in City Hall that shows he owns a mortgage, for that seems to be the only way they can find out about his property; and therefore they value the mortgage and make an assessment on that basis and add a penalty.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the amendments?

The yeas and nays were taken agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, and were as follows, viz:

Chapman,	Harvey,	Owlett,	Woodward,
Clark,

A majority of all the Senators having voted "aye" the question was determined in the affirmative.

Mr. CAVALCANTE. Mr. President, I move that the Committee of the Whole do now rise.

Mr. THOMPSON (Centre). Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

The PRESIDENT. That constitutes the report to the Senate. The amendments are all strike-outs, and the bill is, therefore before the Senate for final action.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. REED (Dauphin). Mr. President, I desire to interrogate the Senator from Monroe, Mr. Huffman.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Monroe, Mr. Huffman, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. HUFFMAN. Mr. President, I will.

Mr. REED (Dauphin). Mr. President, I desire to inquire of the Senator from Monroe as to whether or not additional employees will be required by the Department of Revenue for the collection of this tax.

Mr. HUFFMAN. Mr. President, in answer to the question of the Senator from Dauphin, I expect he is about as well qualified to answer that as I. We have passed two other taxes this session, including the graduated income tax, which will require the setting up of an agency to collect the tax; and I assume the same agency will collect this tax. After all, it is not necessary to go out over the State to get he money; these reports will be sent to Harrisburg, with checks.

Mr. REED (Dauphin). Mr. President, what I am particularly interested in, and I hope I can have an answer after my inquiry, is as to how many additional employees will be required if this additional tax bill is passed.

Mr. HUFFMAN. Mr. President, the Senator from Dauphin will have to ask a man better qualified than I am to answer that question.

Mr. REED (Dauphin). Mr. President, will the Senator from Monroe suggest a Senator who is better able to answer that question than he is?

Mr. HUFFMAN. Mr. President, the Senator from Dauphin, I think.

Mr. REED (Dauphin). Mr. President, I thank the Senator from Monroe for the compliment. I will take the responsibility, then, of answering the question, and in doing so I will say I do not have the faintest idea as to the number of additional employees who will be required; but I do believe that a very considerable number of tax collectors throughout Pennsylvania will be required for the collection of this tax; and I am rather surprised to have the admission from the Senator from Monroe that this bill is coming before the Senate at this time and that neither he nor any other Senator is better qualified than the Senator from Dauphin to answer that question.

It seems to me rather strange, Mr. President, that this tax bill is before this Senate at the present time without anyone being able to give an approximate idea of the vast number of collectors and investigators who will act under the Department of Revenue for the collection of this tax.

Now, Mr. President, I have been advised that a concurrent resolution recently passed by this Senate has been defeated in the House. The purpose of that resolution was to have reconsidered a bill which would abolish in cities of the third class a single tax collector; and yet I noted among the votes cast the vote of my distinguished friend and colleague from Blair County, Mr. Mallery, for this bill which imposes an army of tax collectors in Pennsylvania, to be employed by the Department of Revenue. I want to submit these facts to the Senate. I believe in economy in government, and I believe in economy in government in a big way, and I have failed to see where the Democratic Party during this legislative session has made the slightest effort to reduce the cost of government in this State; and I am opposed to this bill not only because I am opposed to this tax as a tax, but I am opposed to it as another evidence of the aim of this Administration to centralize power in a great bureaucracy—not even to permit the collection of this additional mill in the way the other mills are collected, but to reach out and build up another army to add to the expense of government by building up a bureaucracy.

Therefore, I again ask someone to state upon the floor of this Senate just how big an army of tax collectors is being built up under this bill.

Mr. WOODWARD. Mr. President, for the benefit of the Senator from Monroe, and the Senator from Dauphin, I would like to suggest that even one mill may be equipped with a great deal of machinery.

And the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

The yeas and nays were taken agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, and were as follows, viz:

YEAS—30

Aron,	Law,	Reed,	Sones,

A majority of all the Senators having voted "aye" the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk return said bill to the House of Representatives with information that the Senate has passed the same with amendments in which the concurrence of the House is requested.

BILL ON THIRD READING POSTPONED FOR THE PRESENT

Mr. SORDONI. Mr. President, I move that the Senate do now resume the consideration of Senate Bill No. 1429 (House Bill No. 2853) on third reading postponed for the present.

Mr. ROBERTS. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the bill on third reading?

Mr. SORDONI. Mr. President, this was one of the proposed revenue-raising measures of the State—the Committee on Finance of the Senate of Pennsylvania—which is now, by reason of the fact of the tax just passed, no longer necessary. I therefore ask that it be dropped from the Calendar.

Mr. ROBERTS. Mr. President, I second the motion.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

Mr. REED (Dauphin). Mr. President, I just wish to state that I would not attempt to embarrass anyone by forcing a roll call on this motion. I do ask, however, simply that I may have this opportunity of saying that I am opposed to this motion because I am still of the opinion that the agreement of May 15th in regard to this tax should be carried out.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

It was agreed to.

RESOLUTION RECALLING FROM THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES HOUSE BILL NO. 2904

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to offer a resolution at this time.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

Mr. HOWELL offered the following resolution which was twice read.

In the Senate, June 21, 1935

Resolved (if the House of Representatives concur), That House Bill No. 2904, Printer's No. 1612, entitled "An act to provide revenue by imposing a State excise tax upon sales of cosmetics as herein defined used or useful in beautifying cleansing preserving and improving the appearance of the skin hair or teeth and including perfumes and shaving preparations by dealers as herein defined requiring persons engaged in the sale of cosmetics at wholesale or retail to secure permits prescribing the method and manner of collecting such tax conferring powers and imposing duties on the Department of Revenue and persons as herein defined engaged in the sale of cosmetics at retail or wholesale providing penalties and making an appropriation," be recalled from the House of Representatives for further consideration.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the resolution?

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, yesterday we passed a tax known as the cosmetic tax, which was House Bill No. 2904. Since this one-mill tax will suffice to balance the budget, and the other bill is now in the transcribing room. If I am in order, I will immediately present a resolution for its recall.

Mr. McCLURE. Mr. President, I am compelled to oppose this bill which is known as the Cosmetics bill, will be necessary to balance the budget

I want to call the attention of the members of the Senate to the discussion on the previous bill. It was estimated that we had in Pennsylvania $8,000,000,000 worth of personal property, and that one mill levied on $8,000,000,000 worth of personal property would net the State $8,000,000—in other words, one hundred per cent collection; and no government, no matter how efficient, ever collects one hundred per cent.

It was claimed on the part of the opponents of the bill that if the county collected the tax it would produce $3,500,000. The Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Shapiro, has also called to the attention of the Senate the fact that unless this budget is balanced one hundred per cent. the Governor's anticipated tax notes will not be accepted by bankers. Mind you, we must have one hundred per-cent.—and I believe the gentleman's statement is correct, I believe we do have to have one hundred per cent; and of this one mill personal property tax, if only ninety-nine per cent of that tax is collected by the State, then the budget is not balanced and the Governor's plan fails.

So, let us be safe; let us be safe and let us pass this tax. And we still have another reason, and I repeat what I said before this afternoon, that we are going to return here in less than a year, and this $2,000,000 estimated from this tax would be a sizeable sum to begin with. The money from this tax is not going to be wasted; our Commonwealth can only spend the money that is appropriated. If this tax is collected within the next year we will again start with $2,000,000 less the $500,000 for the collection of the one-mill tax, or, we will have a million and a half to begin with; and we will have the assurance that the bankers will be perfectly satisfied and we will be able to borrow the $50,000,000,—and I certainly hope that we are able to borrow that sum, because it makes our financial affairs more flexible, and I am in accord with that principle. I supported the Governor's plan for obtaining this money, I thought it a very good plan; and I hope the Senate will not keep the Cosmetics Tax Bill from the Governor's office.

Mr. SHAPRO. Mr. President, I have listened to the statement of the Senator from Delaware, Mr. McClure, with an increased feeling of admiration for his ability, but misunderstand his attitude. We have been listening to cries here of "Why should we impose unnecessary taxes?" I am opposed to levying any taxes unless absolutely necessary.

Mr. HUFFMAN. Mr. President, I desire to interrogate the Senator from Delaware, Mr. McClure.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Delaware, Mr. McClure, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. McCLURE. Mr. President, I will.

Mr. HUFFMAN. Mr. President, I thought it was understood by all of us yesterday that if we produce a tax, or a bill that would produce taxes, to the amount of $8,000,000 we then would have the budget balanced, and we would not need to put through any more so-called nuisance taxes. Is that the understanding of the Senator from Delaware, Mr. McClure?

Mr. McCLURE. Mr. President, the reply to that is this: That is the statement that has been made by the Administration. I cannot say that I have made that statement. The statement was made to me.

May I reply to the question of the Senator from Monroe in more detail?

Mr. HUFFMAN. Mr. President, certainly.

Mr. McCLURE. Mr. President, of course it is not my duty to certify to the bankers that this budget is balanced, and I am very glad that I do not have that duty. If it is balanced I shall be very happy; but I call to attention—

Mr. HUFFMAN. Mr. President, I would like to finish.

Mr. McCLURE. Mr. President, certainly.

Mr. HUFFMAN. Mr. President, it was stated yesterday, in the Committee on Finance, by the financial officers, the fiscal officers of the State, that if we put through this one-mill tax that we have just passed, to be collected by the Commonwealth and not by the counties, then it would produce $8,000,000 in taxes; and we had thought we needed but $8,000,000 to balance the budget. Without having the budget balanced we were not able to convince the bankers that they might lend their money to the Commonwealth. I have a statement, given to me this morning, to the effect that if this bill was put through—the one we have just passed—the budget will be balanced, and that it does not require either the Cosmetics Tax, the Stamp Tax or the Check Tax or the Mercantile Tax; and we think that all of those tax bills should be dropped from the Calendar.

Mr. McCLURE. Mr. President, I will make a statement which I do not think can be contradicted. I have as the basis for this statement the figures of the Administration as given me in their compromise tax program—given me as late as yesterday—and I call the attention of the Senators to three taxes on this program: First, the Cigarette Tax, the income from which is estimated at $5,000,000 for one year. This tax will not go into effect until one and one-half months of the biennium have expired; and if that estimate is true, then the $5,000,000 cannot be collected within the year. Secondly, I call attention to the one cent Gas Tax, estimated to produce, for a year, $11,000,000. That tax, I believe does not go into effect until the first of January; and therefore you can deduct one-half of the $11,000,000, for only one-half of the $11,000,000 can be collected during the first year of the biennium. Thirdly, I call your attention to the Amusement Tax, estimated to yield $2,750,000, and which does not go into effect until, I believe, the present time, or within a week. At least one month of the time has expired on that particular tax.

Mr. President, I ask the gentlemen of the Senaate, in view of the estimates of those taxes given me by the Administration, "How is this budget to be balanced without this $2,000,000 from the Cosmetics Tax?"

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the resolution?

It was agreed to.

BILL ON FINAL PASSAGE POSTPONED

Mr. ARON. Mr. President, I move that the Senate do now resume the consideration of Senate Bill No. 1422 (House Bill No. 2661), on final passage, postponed for the present, entitled:

An Act to amend the act approved the second day of May one thousand eight hundred and ninety-nine (Pamphlet Laws one thousand eighty-four) entitled "An act to provide revenue by imposing a mercantile license tax on vendors or dealers in goods wares and merchandise and providing for the collection of said tax" as amended by increasing the tax for a limited period of time clarifying the provisions defining wholesale and retail venders and dealers and relating to appeals and repealing inconeistsnt acts

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

And the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

MOTION TO DROP BILL FROM THE CALENDAR

Mr. ARON. Mr. President, believing that we have now raised sufficient taxes to balance the budget, I feel there is no need for this tax. I therefore move, Mr. President, that this bill be dropped from the Calendar.

Mr. HUFFMAN. Mr. President, may I ask which bill this is?

Mr. ARON. Mr. President, it is the mercantile tax bill.

Mr. HUFFMAN. Mr. President, I desire to interrogate the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Aron.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Aron, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. ARON. Mr. President, I will.

Mr. HUFFMAN. Mr. President, does the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Aron, have in mind that this tax is fixed now at two mills?

Mr. ARON. Mr. President, yes, the present tax remains.

Mr. HUFFMAN. Mr. President, may I inform the Senator that last night an amendment was introduced for the purpose of clarifying that Act? It is an old Act, providing for a one mill tax, and because of a mistake of mine the two mills was reduced to one mill. I did not know that that was in the amendment I offered. So the bill the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Aron, is speaking about is the old Mercantile Tax Act, and it should go through the Senate.

Mr. ARON. Mr. President, I withdraw the motion.

And the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, I desire to interrogate the Senator from Monroe, Mr. Huffman.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Monroe, Mr. Huffman, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. HUFFMAN. Mr. President, I will.

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, do I understand the Senator from Monroe, Mr. Huffman, to say that we now should pass this Mercantile Tax Bill that is on the Calendar.

Mr. HUFFMAN. Mr. President, as it stands now this is an amendment to the old Act, the amendment being only a change in the defense that a merchant may make when an attempt is made to collect the tax. At the present time, in the old Act, a taxpayer had no defense to an appraisement made against him; the only defense he did have was as to the classification, but if he were overpaid (?) he did not have any defense. We amended that bill last night so he might have a proper defense if he could show that. That is all there is in the bill now with the amendment.

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, will the Senator from Monroe, Mr. Huffman, point out what section was amended by those amendments?

Mr. ARON. Mr. President, I move that the question, together with further consideration of this bill, be postponed for the present.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I should like to make this statement in connection with this Act: It may be a worthy Act, but I do not think that within a few hours of adjournment we should enact a bill that has been on our Calendar time and time again; that we should amend a present law by a bill that was intended to increase the tax, if such increase is not necessary.

BILL DROPPED FROM THE CALENDAR

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I now renew the motion made by the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Aron, that this bill be dropped from the Calendar.

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, I second the motion.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, for the information of the Senator from Monroe, Mr. Huffman, and for the information of the Senate, I feel that this amendment, placed in this bill was never really before the Committee on Finance, it was merely understood that there would be an amendment providing for a two-mill mercantile tax instead of the one-mill mercantile tax, as at present; and I thoroughly agree with the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Shapiro, that this bill should be dropped from the Calendar. I have not heard of any need for any new mercantile tax law.

Mr. HARRIS. Mr. President, there seems to be a very serious difference of opinion on this matter. I believe this can be adjusted by a conference that would last a very short time.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

RECESS

Mr. HARRIS. Mr. President, I move that a Recess be taken for ten minutes, so that these differences can be adjusted. In spite of the protest of the members of this body I want to say that they are liable to make a very serious mistake in this matter, and to take ten minutes for a conference may prevent the making of a very serious mistake.

Mr. REED (Dauphin). Mr. President, I second the motion.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

Mr. WOODWARD. Mr. President, before the motion is put I desire to interrogate the Senator from Monroe, Mr. Huffman.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Monroe, Mr. Huffman, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. HUFFMAN. Mr. President, I will.

Mr. WOODWARD. Mr. President, I would like to ask the Senator from Monroe whether he stated that if this bill were not passed there would be no mercantile license tax at all.

Mr. HUFFMAN. Mr. President, no.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

The yeas and nays were required by Mr. HARRIS and Mr. REED (Dauphin) and were as follows, viz:

YEAS—26

Cavalcante,	Kahle,	Prince,	Rice,
Frey,	Lanius,	Pytko,	Roberts,
Gelder,	Law,	Rankin,	Rodgers,
Harris,	Mallery,	Reed,	Rupp,

So the question was determined in the affirmative.

AFTER RECESS

The PRESIDENT. The time of recess having elapsed, the Senate will be in order.

Mr. ARON. Mr. President, I call attention to the motion made that Senate Bill No. 1422 (Hause Bill 2661) be dropped from the Calendar.

The PRESIDENT. The motion pending, as made by the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Aron, is that this bill be dropped from the Calendar.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate garee to the motion?

It was agreed to.

The PRESIDENT PRO TEMPORE (Mr. John G. Homsher) in the Chair.

Mr. HUFFMAN. Mr. President, I desire to call up, out of order, Senate Bill No. 1723 (House Bill No. 3025) on third reading.

BILLS ON THIRD READING

Agreeably to order,

The Senate proceeded to the third reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 1723 (House Bill No. 3025), as follows:

An Act to amend the act approved the sixteenth day of May one thousand nine hundred and thirty-five (Act numbered ninety) entitled "An act to provide revenue by imposing a State stamp tax upon certain documents and obligations prescribing and regulating the method and manner of evidencing the payment of such tax conferring powers and imposing duties upon certain persons partnerships associations and corporations county officers and the Department of Revenue making an appropriation and providing penalties" by further defining taxable documents and persons associations and corporations subject to pay the tax

Section 1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same That section two of the act approved the sixteenth day of May one thousand nine hundred and thirty-five (Act number ninety) entitled "An Act to provide revenue by imposing a State stamp tax upon certain documents and obligations prescribing and regulating the method and manner of evidencing the payment of such tax conferring powers and imposing duties upon certain persons partnerships associations and corporations county officers and the Department of Revenue making an appropriation and providing penalties" is hereby amended to read as follows

Section 2 The following words when used in this act shall have the meanings ascribed to them in this section except in those instances where the context clearly indicates a different meaning

"Association" A partnership limited partnership or any other form of incorporated enterprise owned by two or more persons

"Corporation" A corporation or joint-stock association organized under the laws of this Commonwealth the United States or any other state territory or foreign country or dependency

"Department" The Department of Revenue of this Commonwealth

"Document" A written instrument including the following

1 Any deed instrument or writing other than a lease whereby any lands tenements or hereditaments or any interest therein shall be granted bargained sold or otherwise conveyed to the grantee purchaser or any other person

2 Any bond debenture or certificate [or evidence] of indebtedness of any person (except certificates of deposit) and any instrument however termed issued by any corporation with interest coupons attached or in registered form known generally as corporate securities except mortgage and trust participation certificates and securities issued by this Commonwealth or any political subdivision thereof or by the United States Provided That every renewal of any of the foregoing documents shall constitute a new issue or document Provided further that nothing herein contained shall refer or be construed to extend to contracts of insurance annuity suretyship indemnity and guarantee

3 [Any written obligation to pay money including any promissory note (except bank notes issued for circulation and notes issued to mutual insurance companies payable only on the happening of certain contingencies) nonnegotiable note judgment note and any executory contract for the payment of money which is executed or carried out in an instrument in writing (except checks and drafts) and each renewal of any of the foregoing documents Provided That nothing herein contained shall refer or be construed to extend to contracts of insurance annuity suretyship indemnity and guarantee

4] Any mortgage [which incorporates] unless the [certificate of] indebtedness [not otherwise shown in a separate instrument] is evidenced by a separate instrument which is a document as defined in this act

"Person" Every natural person association or corporation Whenever used in any clause prescribing and imposing a fine or imprisonment or both the term person as applied to associations shall mean the partners or members thereof and as applied to corporations the officers thereof

Section 3 This act shall become effective immediately upon its final enactment

And said bill having been read at length the third time, and agreed to,

And the amendments made thereto having been printed as required by the Constitution,

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. HUFFMAN. Mr. President, this is an amendment to the documentary tax passed a couple of weeks ago, which cuts out the tax on promissory notes.

Mr. SORDONI. Mr. President, what the Senator from Monroe, Mr. Huffman, says is correct. This is one of the revenues we had contemplated in the original tax program, and it is no longer needed, as the budget is balanced. This is an amendment to the original act, which provides for a tax on notes and certificates of deposit. I hope everyone will vote "aye" on the passage of the bill.

And the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

The yeas and nays were taken agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, and were as follows, viz:

Chapman,

A majority of all the Senators having voted "aye" the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk return said bill to the House of Representatives with information that the Senate has passed the same with amendments in which the concurrence of the House is requested.

Mr. HUFFMAN. Mr. President, I desire to call up, out of order, Senate Bill No. 1724 (House Bill No. 3026) on third reading.

Agreeably to order,

The Senate proceeded to the third reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 1724 (House Bill No. 3026), as follows:

An Act authorizing the Commonwealth to negotiate temporary emergency loans to defray the current and/or other expenses of the State government during the two fiscal years beginning the first day of June one thousand nine hundred thirty-five evidenced by tax anticipation notes secured by and payable from current revenues levied assessed collectible and/or accruing during such two fiscal years defining the powers and duties of the Governor the Auditor General and the State Treasurer in relation thereto providing for the payment of interest on and the payment of such loans and making an appropriation

Whereas the present Session of the General Assembly has provided new revenues of the Commonwealth amounting to one hundred twenty million dollars ($120,000,000) in addition to other revenue for general purposes and

Whereas such revenues in the amount of sixty million dollars ($60,000,000) are specifically appropriated and set aside during the first fiscal year of the biennial fiscal period beginning the first day of June one thousand nine hundred thirty-five for unemployment relief and the remainder of such new revenues amounting to sixty million dollars ($60,000,000) though due will not be available to defray the current expenses of the State government when the same is actually necessary for that purpose or until the second fiscal year of such period and

Whereas the revenues though levied and assessed will not be available for the current expenses of the State government until the end of the first fiscal year of the aforesaid biennium and the collectible revenues will not be sufficient to defray the current expenses of the State government during such fiscal year and

Whereas the total revenues (including the aforesaid remainder of new revenues amounting to $60,000,000) which will be available for current and other expenses of the State government and which will accrue and will be paid into the General Fund of the State Treasury during both fiscal years of the said period will be sufficient to meet such current and other expenses during such period and

Whereas in order that the obligations of the Commonwealth for current and other expenses may be met promptly and in order that the State government might not fail through lack of funds it is necessary temporarily to obtain funds to defray the current and other expenses of the State government during the fiscal period aforesaid until the revenues that will subsequently accrue to the State Treasury during the aforesaid fiscal period are available for this purpose

Section 1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same That the Governor the Auditor General and the State Treasurer on behalf of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania are hereby authorized and directed during the two fiscal years beginning June first one thousand nine hundred thirty-five from time to time to borrow on the credit of the current revenues of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania such sum or sums of money not exceeding in the aggregate the sum of fifty million dollars ($50,000,000) as may be necessary to defray the current and other expenses of the State government during such fiscal years

Section 2 (a) Such loans shall be evidenced by notes of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania matured not later than the thirty-first day of May one thousand nine hundred thirty-seven Such notes are hereby declared to be tax anticipation notes Such notes or renewals thereof shall be issued from time to time for such total amounts in such sums and subject to such terms and conditions rates of interest not in excess of four and one-half per centum (4½%) per annum and time of payment of interest as the Governor Auditor General and State Treasurer shall determine and direct

(b) All notes issued under the authority of this act shall bear the signatures of the Governor the Auditor General and the State Treasurer and a facsimile of the great seal of the Commonwealth

(c) The current revenues of the biennial fiscal period beginning the first day of June one thousand nine hundred thirty-five are pledged for the payment of principal and interest of such notes which shall be payable in lawful money of the United States All notes issued under the provisions of this act shall be exempt from taxation for State and local purposes

Section 3 The proceeds derived from the negotiation of loans under the provisions of this act shall be paid into the General Fund of the State Treasury and shall be used for the payment of appropriations made from such fund to defray the current and other expenses of the State government for the biennium beginning June first one thousand nine hundred thirty-five

Section 4 Any loans negotiated under the provisions of this act shall be secured by the current revenues levied and assessed for revenue purposes of every kind or character accruing to the General Fund of the State Treasury during the two fiscal years beginning June first one thousand nine hundred thirty-five and shall be paid out of such revenues and so much of such revenues as may be necessary for the payment of the principal and interest of such loans are hereby specifically appropriated The Department of Revenue shall allocate such revenues to said payments The sum of Twenty Thousand ($20,000) Dollars or so much thereof as may be necessary is hereby specifically appropriated for the purpose of providing tax anticipation notes and incidental expenses in connection with the issuing of the same

Section 5 The provisions of this act are severable and if any of its provisions are held unconstitutional the decision so holding shall not be construed to impair any other provision of this act It is hereby declared as the legislative intent that this act would have been adopted had such unconstitutional provision not been included therein

And said bill having been read at length the third time, and agreed to,

And the amendments made thereto having been printed as required by the Constitution,

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

The yeas and nays were taken agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, and were as follows, viz:

NAYS—1

Chapman,

A majority of all the Senators having voted "aye" the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk return said bill to the House of Representatives with information that the Senate has passed the same with amendments in which the concurrence of the House is requested.

BILLS ON THIRD READING

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, I desire to call up, out of order, Senate Bill No. 1683 (House Bill No. 2107) on third reading.

Agreeably to order,

The Senate proceeded to the third reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 1683 (House Bill No. 2107), entitled:

An Act to amend sections five hundred forty-sveen eight hundred two and nine hundred two of and to add section nine hundred and two A to the act approved the first day of May one thousand nine hundred and thirty-three (Pamphlet Laws one hundred three) entitled "An act concerning townships of the second class and amending revising consolidating and changing the law relating thereto" providing for and regulating methods of making appropriations expenditures contracts and purchases by the township and the making of the annual budget on a uniform form prepared by representatives of the township supervisors the Department of Highways and the Department of Internal Affairs requiring the supervisors to file the annual budget with the said department and the auditors to file an annual financial report with said department and providing penalties.

And said bill having been read at length the third time,

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the bill on third reading?

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, I move that this bill be dropped from the Calendar.

Mr. BAUMER. Mr. President, I second the motion.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, this is another one of those bills in which I have no interest, according to my friend the Senator from Bucks, because it does not happen to be in my township; but it is a budgetary system to be set up in these bills.

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, there is a very definite reason why this bill should be dropped from the Calendar. The Highway Department has called my attention to the fact that this bill in its present condition, cuts out all reports from supervisors in the Highway Department, and for that reason they do not want this bill to pass in its present condition, and I decided to make a motion in connection with this particular bill; and will make similar motions with regard to any other bills of this nature.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

The motion was agreed to.

Mr. CAVALCANTE. Mr. President, I desire to call up, out of order, Senate Bill No. 1703 (House Bill No. 2961) on third reading.

Agreeably to order,

The Senate proceeded to the third reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 1703 (House Bill No. 2961), entitled:

A Joint Resolution creating a commission to investigate the cause of the movement of the steel industry away from this Commonwealth to devise means to halt the same and to make a general survey of the steel industry and making an appropriation.

And said bill having been read at length the third time, and agreed to,

And the amendments made thereto having been printed as required by the Constitution,

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. REED (Dauphin). Mr. President, I move that this bill be dropped from the Calendar.

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, I second the motion.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. CAVALCANTE. Mr. President, I rise to a point of order.

The PRESIDENT. The Senator from Fayette, Mr. Cavalcante, will state his point of order.

Mr. CAVALCANTE. Mr. President, there is a motion on the floor that this bill be called up for final reading now.

The PRESIDENT. The bill has been called up for consideration.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

Mr. CAVALCANTE. Mr. President, this bill is intended to conduct an investigation into a condition that has started in the western part of this State and is continuing at this time. Large steel works, steel industries, are gradually moving out of the western part of this State and establishing their steel mills and industries in other States of the Union. The removing of these industries from our Commonwealth is causing considerable hardships throughout the communities in which these industries at one time were flourishing and providing considerable employment for the inhabitants of this Commonwealth. This bill is intended to investigate why the steel companies are removing their industries from our Commonwealth, and I see no harm in this. I think it ought to be desirable, the citizens of this Commonwealth are interested in keeping the industries in this Commonwealth, and I think that this bill creating this Commission is absolutely a wise thing, to see if we can save or if we can keep in our Commonwealth these industries, after finding out the causes for moving them from this Commonwealth. I think that this bill ought to be passed.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

A division being called for, twelve Senators voted in the affirmative and sixteen in the negative; whereupon, the question was determined in the negatve.

And the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. REED (Dauphin). Mr. President, I could be moved almost to tears by the remarks of the Senator from Fayette over this very belated concern on the part of the Democratic Party as to industry in Pennsylvania. We are now in the closing hours of the legislative session, which, as I stated before, this Administration has not made a move in even a single gesture to do anything for industry in Pennsylvania. Now, I do not know personally whether or not there is any concerted movement on the part of the steel industry to move from Pennsylvania, but I do know that the Governor of Pennsylvania has recently stated that he will do everything in his power, notwithstanding the decisions of the Supreme Court of the United States, to bring the "New Deal" into Pennsylvania, and I am sure that if there is anything which will cause the steel industry, or other industries to move out of Pennsylvania, it will be the attempt of the Governor to bring the "New Deal" into Pennsylvania. I would not object so much to this resolution were it a legislative investigation, but the legislative part is only incidental. I call attention to the fact that there are to be two members of this proposed commission appointed by the President Pro Tempore of the Senate, two by the Speaker of the House of Representatives, and three to be appointed by the Governor. We start off, therefore, with a five to two "New Deal" committee, and I do not anticipate that there will be anything secure on such a committee, and also we have heard a great deal within the last day or two with regard to economy, and here we have a resolution simply to investigate one simple thing, the alleged removal of the steel industry from Pennsylvania, covering a $25,000 appropriation. I do not see how any Senator can justify the expenditure of $25,000 from the public treasury for any such purpose as is expressed in this resolution. Therefore, I hope that the Democratic side of the House will show their new-born babe indeed, which they have professed, by voting down this bill, and thereby saving this utterly useless expenditure of money.

Mr. THOMPSON (Westmoreland). Mr. President, the remarks of my colleague, the Senator from Dauphin, Mr. Reed, confirms my opinion which I have often expressed in committee, that about two-thirds of the Senators in this body do not know anything about western Pennsylvania. The Senator from Dauphin has made a misstatement which he knows is a misstatement, because I know that the appropriation had been cut to ten thousand dollars in committee. He now wants the Senate to believe that it is $25,000. There undoubtedly is a movement in western Pennsylvania for what reason we do not know, but those in western Pennsylvania are very much surprised about it. Two very large mills in our own town have moved out in the last two years. In the town of Philipsburg, in my county, a town of 15,000 people, several of the mills are closed down, and I understand in the town of Monessen, in my county, another large mill has closed. I have received two telegrams which show the opinions of the industrial people, and the people of the Chamber of Commerce of the section in which I live. There may be some reason for this bill. I do not see any reason why we should not pass it, we passed the bills a few days ago for investigations and we want to investigate something that concerns western Pennsylvania, the Senators of eastern Pennsylvania throw up their hands and say "no."

Mr. SORDONI. Mr. President, I am not a lawyer, I am in business, and I think when a firm which is long established in a community, for economic or some other reasons decide to move, the question of an investigation of their moving by the State of Pennsylvania, is not going to change their minds. They have their real estate, their buildings, their men, their machinery placed in their establishment, and there must be a real good reason. Now the question of an investigation is not going to make them change their minds, and this bill simply calls for the expenditure of ten thousand dollars, which is sorely needed in the State at the present time for relief and other purposes, and we will gain no result. I hope the Senate will turn this bill down.

Mr. HARRIS. Mr. President, in support of the argument of the Senator from Westmoreland, Mr. Thompson, I desire to inform the Senate that in the city of Pittsburgh now, a group of public-spirited citizens are organizing for this very purpose. Last week they held meetings and they are making such an investigation that they would have information that they could lay before this committee. This is a serious matter to the people of western Pennsylvania and I believe that this bill should be passed.

Mr. COYNE. Mr. President, those same people in Pittsburgh who are back of this resolution were the same people who are causing these industries to move from Westmoreland County and Pittsburgh. For the last four years they have been doing nothing but applaud Mrs. Pinchot and her crowd from Harrisburg.

Mr. HARRIS. Mr. President, the Senator from Allegheny, Mr. Coyne, is in error. The people who are organizing this group have been opposed to Mrs. Pinchot and the Governor for years. This is a group of business people representing many industries.

Mr. COYNE. Mr. President, yes, there are people I have talked to who were business people, and I will name some of them: Mrs. Miller, Mr. Weaver, Earnest, William and the rest of them, who were applauding the Pinchots when they were chasing the industries out of Pennsylvania.

Mr. REED (Dauphin). Mr. President, I want to apologize for the misstatement which I made as to the amount of the appropriation carried by this bill. I have in my hands Printer's No. 1500, which calls for an appropriation of $25,000. I did not entirely understand the remarks of the Senator from Westmoreland, Mr. Thompson, when he was speaking to me, that the bill had been amended to ten thousand dollars, but whether $25,000 or $10,000, is utterly immaterial, because I think that the answer is very clear as to why the steel industry, or any other industry, is leaving Pennsylvania, and the answer to it is to keep these industries in Pennsylvania would be for the voters of Pennsylvania to support the Republican ticket.

Mr. BATCHELOR. Mr. President, I do not want to prolong these arguments, but I certainly shall vote against this resolution, because I represent two western Pennsylvania counties. I believe a week ago we read in the Pittsburgh steel mill that formerly employed about 1500 men, that was located in Senator Thompson's county, were advertising for bids for the removal of their plant to locations in the Tennessee Valley. I do not believe that we need to talk much about that, you know why that plant wants to remove from Pennsylvania to the Tennessee Valley. We have those industries in western Pennsylvania, especially during this depression, and I have been trying to call the attention of my Democratic friends to that fact ever since the Session began. It was not very long ago that we placed a new tax upon them, and, if you really want to know why industry is moving from western Pennsylvania, I would refer you to a book that has been published, the title of which is "The Flight of Capital and Industry from Massachusetts." If you will make a careful analysis of that book, I think you can determine then why capital and industry is moving from the State of Massachusetts, and we are following after Massachusetts is placing unreasonable burdens upon industry. I commend that book to your attention.

Mr. GRAFF. Mr. President, I do not wish to inflict remarks for any length of time upon the Senate. I do wish to express my approval of what has been said by the opponents of this bill. I do not like to take issue to the remarks made by my distinguished colleague from Westmoreland County, Senator Thompson, but I do simply want to say this, that if industry is moving out of Pennsylvania, it seems to me that is nothing more than is to be expected. The fact is, the Governor of this Commonwealth for the time being is holding up industry to villification slander and abuse, more in the light of "Public Enemy No. 1." It seems to me that is the attitude on the part of the Administration, and this is nothing more than is to be expected.

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, I never make long speeches and I do not profess to know much about industry in western Pennsylvania, but I would say this, that if this were an appropriation of $10,000 to bring industry into Pennsylvania, it might be worth while, but as the bill reads now it seems to me that it is just like paying $10,000 for an autopsy to find what a man died of.

POINT OF ORDER

Before the vote is announced, I desire to rise to a point of order.

The PRESIDENT. The Senator from Bucks, Mr. Buckman, will state his point of order.

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, my point of order is that under the Constitution of Pennsylvania, this appropriation bill, being made to a Commission to be created, which is not a branch of the government, requires a two-thirds vote of all the Senators elected, or thirty-four votes, before it could be declared passed by the Chair.

The PRESIDENT. The point of order of the Senator from Bucks, Mr. Buckman, is well taken.

And the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

The yeas and nays were taken agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, and were as follows, viz:

And said bill having been read at length the third time,

And the amendments made thereto having been printed as required by the Constitution.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the bill?

MOTION THAT THE SENATE RESOLVE ITSELF INTO COMMITTEE OF THE WHOLE FOR SPECIAL AMENDMENTS.

Mr. THOMPSON (Centre). Mr. President, I move that the Senate do now resolve itself into Committee of the Whole for the purpose of considering the following special amendments:

Mr. STAUDENMEIER. Mr. President, before that motion is put, if we are to resolve ourselves into a Committee of the Whole we ought to know what the amendments will be.

The PRESIDENT. The amendments will be read for the information of the Senate.

The amendments were read as follows: amend section 2, page 19, line 12, by striking out the bold-faced brackets before the word "eight"; amend section 2, page 19, line 12, by striking out at the end of the line after the word "eight" and following "seven"; amend section 2, page 19, line 13, by striking out the bold-faced bracket before the word "twelve"; amend section 2, page 19, line 13, by striking out after the word "twelve" and before the word "thousand" the following, "sixty-two"; amend section 2, page 19, line 14, by striking out the bold-faced bracket before "1812000"; amend section 2, page 19, line 14, by striking out at the end of the line after "1812000" the following "1762000."

Mr. PYTKO. Mr. President, I second the motion.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

Mr. THOMPSON (Centre). Mr. President, these amendments restore the sum of $50,000 which was carved off the appropriation for the Department of Labor and Industry. By the act which was recently passed the sum of $30,000 is being added to the expenses of the Department by reason of the addition of the two extra members to the Workmen's Compensation Board. The restoration of this item in the appropriation becomes a very important matter to the Department.

Mr. EALY. Mr. President, I desire to interrogate the Senator from Centre, Mr. Thompson.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Centre, Mr. Thompson, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. THOMPSON (Centre). Mr. President, I will.

Mr. EALY. Mr. President, was the bill to which the Senator from Centre referred, passed by the House?

Mr. THOMPSON (Centre). Mr. President, it has been passed by the Senate, and I understand it is to be passed by the House.

Mr. EALY. Mr. President, the Senator from Centre, Mr. Thompson, understands it is to be passed by the House?

Mr. THOMPSON (Centre). Mr. President, yes. I do not know whether the bill has reached them yet or not, but I am informed that when it does reach them it will be enacted.

Mr. EALY. Mr. President, have the members of the House informed the Senator from Centre, Mr. Thompson, that they will all vote for it?

Mr. THOMPSON (Centre). Mr. President, I have not talked to all of them, but I am reliably informed—through the channels through which such information comes—that such action will be taken

Mr. EALY. Mr. President, the Senator from Centre, Mr. Thompson, knows, then, that the House will vote for it?

Mr. THOMPSON (Centre). Mr. President, that is what I have been informed.

The PRESIDENT. An affirmative vote for going into Committee of the Whole carries with it the amendments.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

Mr. STAUDENMEIER. Mr. President, there seems to be some misunderstanding about these suggested amendments. Rather than have the whole bill jeopardized at this late hour I would respectfully suggest to the Senator from Centre, Mr. Thompson, that the bill go over for the present, until we have an opportunity to get the Appropriation Bill, and then go over these amendments. It will take just a few minutes, and is better than having a division here and jeopardizing the whole bill.

The PRESIDENT. Does the Senator from Centre, Mr. Thompson, agree to that suggestion?

Mr. THOMPSON (Centre). Yes, Mr. President, the request is entirely satisfactory to me. I withdraw my motion that the Senate go into Committee of the Whole for the purpose of considering these special amendments.

The PRESIDENT. Does the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Pytko, withdraw his seconding of the motion?

Mr. PYTKO. Mr. President, I withdraw my seconding of the motion.

The PRESIDENT. The motion is withdrawn.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the bill on third reading?

Mr. THOMPSON (Centre). Mr. President, in answer to the inquiry of the Senator from Somerset, Mr. Ealy, a moment ago, it was a House Bill we acted on increasing the membership of the Compensation Board.

Mr. EALY. Mr. President, notwithstanding what the Senator from Centre County has said, there are points of difference in the bill to which he has referred, and it seems to me we should not pass this bill with the strike-outs here, which are suggested, until the House has finally acted on the other bill.

BILL OVER IN ORDER

Mr. STAUDENMEIER. Mr. President, it is satisfactory to me to have the bill go over in its order, and I ask unanimous consent that that be done.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chairs hears none.

Mr. REED (Dauphin). Mr. Prsident, I desire to call up Senate Bill No. 1716 (House Bill No. 2334), on third reading.

I make this request because I want to leave for a conference and I would like to explain the bill.

Agreeably to order,

The Senate proceeded to the third reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 1716 (House Bill No. 2334), entitled:

An Act relating to the consolidation of poor districts having territories not co-extensive with counties.

And said bill having been read at length the third time.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. REED (Dauphin). Mr. President, there has been some little misunderstanding of the character of this bill. This bill provides a method by which poor districts may be consolidated. There is nothing mandatory in the bill. It does not abolish or compel consolidation, but if any one of the several counties which have two or more poor boards within the county eliminates any two or more of these boards by vote of the various electors, then the several poor board districts have a method to consolidate

CONSIDERATION OF SENATE BILL NO. 1437 (HOUSE BILL NO. 1991)

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, I call up for further consideration Senate Bill No. 1437 (House Bill No. 1991), on third reading.

MOTION THAT THE SENATE RESOLVE ITSELF INTO COMMITTEE OF THE WHOLE FOR SPECIAL AMENDMENT

Mr. THOMPSON (Centre). Mr. President, I move that the Senate do now resolve itself as a Committee of the Whole for the purpose of considering the special amendments offered when the bill went over in its order a short time ago.

Mr. CAVALCANTE. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The PRESIDENT. The vote on this motion carries with it the vote on the amendments; therefore, a vote for going into Committee of the Whole is a vote to agree to the amendments.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

Mr. STAUDENMEIER. Mr. President, before the vote is taken I go back again to my original position: Has the House acted upon this matter, or are we here voting for an increase of $50,000 to take care of the salaries of two additional members of the Workmen's Compensation Board, when, as a matter of fact, we do not actually know whether they will be appointed or confirmed?

Mr. THOMPSON (Centre). Mr. President, in answer to the question of the Senator from Schuylkill, Mr. Staudenmeier, I have recently received word from the House, and they have advised me that the House will not concur in the Senate amendments.

Mr. STAUDENMEIER. Mr. President, then I certainly do not see how we, as Senators, can vote to insert these amendments. We are right back to where we were in the very beginning.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

Mr. STAUDENMEIER. Mr. President, I ask for a division.

A division being called for, seven Senators voted in the affirmative and nineteen in the negative; whereupon, the question was decided in the negative.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the bill?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

The yeas and nays were taken agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, and were as follows, viz:

BILL DROPPED FROM CALENDAR

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, I move that Senate Bill No. 1072 (House Bill No. 1725), on third reading, postponed for the present, entitled:

An Act requiring persons employing motion picture projectionists or operators to allow them at least twenty-four consecutive hours of rest each week be dropped from the Calendar.

Mr. THOMPSON (Centre). Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

BILL ON FINAL PASSAGE

Mr. EALY. Mr. President, on page 2 of today's Calendar, Senate Bill No. 1301 (House Bill No. 1778), on final passage, was held over in its order. I now call the bill up for consideration.

Agreeably to order,

The Senate resumed the consideration of Senate Bill No. 1301 (House Bill No. 1778), as follows:

An Act to protect the obligors of bonds and mortgages and the owners of property affected thereby during the present emergency by restricting the right to proceed against certain property and limiting the time within which deficiency judgments may be proceeded for limiting the amounts thereof during a certain period and continuing rights duties and obligations established or forfeited under prior laws relating to deficiency judgments

Section 1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same That in all cases where a bond and mortgage is or has been given for the same debt the real property bound by such bond and mortgage shall first be proceeded against and sold on execution and the amount of the deficiency judgment ascertained as hereinafter provided before any other property real or personal of the mortgage debtor may be levied on or sold for the debt secured by such bond and mortgage

In every such case where a single mortgage binds more than one parcel of real property and one or more but not all of such parcels have been sold on execution on the foreclosure of the mortgage or on the judgment entered on any obligation secured by the mortgage no further execution shall issue on such foreclosure or judgment against the remaining parcels so bound until the amount of the deficiency judgment has been determined as hereinafter provided

Section 2 In all cases where a bond and mortgage is or has been given for the same debt and the real estate is sold on the foreclosure of the mortgage or on the judgment entered on any obligation secured by the mortgage if the real estate shall not sell for a sum sufficient to satisfy the debt interest and costs then it shall be lawful to proceed for the deficiency that shall be determined in the manner hereinafter set forth

Section 3 Whenever any real property is sold on any execution on the foreclosure of any mortgage or on a judgment entered on any obligation secured by the mortgage and the sum for which such property was sold is not sufficient to satisfy the debt interest and costs including taxes the plaintiff or use plaintiff shall within six months after such sale petition the court out of which such writ of execution issued to fix the fair value of the property sold at the time of such sale Notice of the presentation of such petition shall be given to the defendant or defendants and to all parties whose interests appear of record and to all persons bound by any obligation securing the payment of such mortgage debt either by personal service or by registered letter directed to the last known place of residence of such parties at least ten days prior to the date of the intended presentation of such petition to the court If the last known place of residence of any of such parties shall not be known to the plaintiff or use plaintiff such notice shall be given by publication once in the legal newspaper and in a newspaper of general circulation in the county at least ten days prior to the presentation of such petition Provided however That if there be no legal newspaper in the county and there be more than one newspaper of general circulation then in two such newspapers otherwise in the one only Such petition shall be heard by a judge of such court sitting without a jury or may by rule adopted by such court be referred to a master for hearing and determination subject to confirmation by the court Provided that the fee of any such master shall in no case exceed one hundred ($100) nor the costs of any proceeding before a master the sum of fifty dollars ($50) And provided further That if the plaintiff or use plaintiff in his petition shall have averred his inability to defray the fees and costs of such proceeding before a master then a master shall not be appointed

Section 4 At all such hearings any party in interest may introduce in evidence testimony of the fair value of the premises sold at the time of the sale In the event the fair value is greater than that for which the property was sold the amount of such fair value and not the price for which the property was sold shall be deducted from the total of the amounts of the judgment interest and costs including all unpaid taxes and any prior mortgage or lien of any character not discharged by the sale and a deficiency judgment entered for the balance

Section 5 If the plaintiff or use plaintiff shall fail to present such petition within six months after such sale the prothonotary shall upon application of the defendant or any person bound by any obligation securing the payment of such mortgage debt enter satisfaction of such judgment Such satisfaction shall have the effect of terminating as well the liability of all persons bound by any obligation securing the payment of such mortgage debt and the court shall have the power to make proper orders and decrees for cancellation of such liability and the surrender of any obligation evidencing such liability

Section 6 The defendant in the foreclosure preceeding or judgment or the real owner of the property sold or any other person or persons bound by any obligation securing the payment of such mortgage debt or other person in interest may at any time after the sale petition the court in like manner to fix the fair value of the property sold at the time of the sale and in such case shall give notice of the presentation of such petition to the plaintiff or use plaintiff in the same manner as hereinbefore provided in the case of a petition by the plaintiff or use plaintiff at least ten days prior to its presentation to the court whereupon the court shall determine the fair value in the same manner as heretofore provided in the case of a petition by the plaintiff or use plaintiff

Section 7 Any purchaser at such sheriff's sale who is the holder of a mortgage lien subsequent to the one upon which the sale was had shall not be entitled to proceed for the recovery of the amount of the debt secured by such subsequent lien and unless a deficiency judgment shall be entered within the time and in the manner as hereinbefore provided in proceedings to obtain a deficiency judgment under the mortgage upon which the sheriff's sale was had and in such case all of the provisions of this act shall apply with the same force and effect as if the said sale had been held upon said subsequent lien or any obligation secured thereby

Section 8 In either case whether the petition is presented by the plaintiff or use plaintiff or by the defendant or any other party in interest any party may during the period of notice required by this act demand a jury trial whereupon the fair value of the property at the time of the sale shall be fixed by a jury trial as in other cases

Sectoin 9 This act shall be deemed and shall be construed to be a continuation of the provisions of the act approved the seventeenth day of January one thousand nine hundred and thirty-four (Pamphlet Laws two hundred forty-three one thousand nine hundred thirty-three one thousand nine hundred thirty-four) entitled "An act to protect the owners of mortgaged property during the present emergency by limiting the amount of deficiency judgments during a certain period" and all rights vested or duties or obligations imposed or rights forfeited under the provisions of said act shall be deemed continued so vested imposed or forfeited under this act and enforceable under this act notwithstanding the expiration of said act of January seventeenth one thousand nine hundred and thirty-four by its own limitation

Section 10 This act is an emergency measure under the police power of this Commonwealth

Section 11 The provisions of this act shall be severable and if any of the provisions shall be held to be unconstitutional such decision shall not affect the validity of any of the remaining provisions of this act It is hereby declared as the legislative intent that this act would have been adopted had such unconstitutional provision not been included therein

Section 12 All acts and parts of acts inconsistent herewith are hereby suspended during the period this act shall remain in effect

Section 13 The provisions of this act shall become effective immdeiately upon its final enactment and shall apply to all sales made prior to the first day of July one thousand nine hundred and thirty-seven and subsequent to the first day of January one thousand nine hundred and thirty-five This act shall remain in force until the first day of January one thousand nine hundred and thirty-eight

And the amendments thereto having been printed as required by the Constitution,

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. EALY. Mr. President, I move to reconsider the vote by which the bill passed third reading.

The PRESIDENT. How did the Senator vote?

Mr. EALY. Mr. President, I voted "aye."

Mr. CAVALCANTE. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The PRESIDENT. How did the Senator vote?

Mr. CAVALCANTE. Mr. President, I voted "aye."

The motion was agreed to.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the bill on third reading?

Mr. EALY. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to amend, consisting merely of strike-outs, as follows: page 2, line 2, strike out "or personal"; page 3, line 15, strike out beginning with the word "if" down to and including "only" in line 23; page 3, strike out lines 25 to 29 inclusive; page 4, strike out lines 1 to 4 inclusive; page 6, line 29, strike out the following "apply to all sales made prior"; page 7, strike out beginning with line 1 down to and including the word "shall" in line 4.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

The amendment was agreed to.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the bill on third reading as amended?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I think we are wasting great deal of time in this matter. Senate Bill No. 1301 is a deficiency judgment bill covering the whole subject matter, and has been agreed to except as to one amendment to take care of the proper wording on a strike-out, and we are about to go into a conference meeting on it.

And the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

And the amendments made thereto having been printed as required by the Constitution,

PRESENTATION OF GAVEL TO HONORABLE JOHN G. HOMSHER

Mr. ROBERTS. Mr. President, yesterday it was my privilege to listen to remarks made by my good friend Senator Buckman, an address to the Lieutenant Governor, who is presiding over this body. I was pleased, of course, to have those remarks come from a member of the other side of the House to the Democratic Lieutenant Governor, and now I am taking this opportunity of one from the Democratic side to tell you, Senator Homsher, how much we appreciate your presiding over this body during this session. I do not know what to say, of course, to the members of this body, but you presided most thoroughly, we all know that, in fact you could not do otherwise, it is a part of your nature, and now I am going to talk, not for the Democrats, but for the entire body. I have here in my hand a gavel, which we present you from the members of this body. I do not think you will need to use it, Senator, because your very presence and your kindly spoken words, I think will be sufficient to main-order without using this gavel, but we will give it to you none the less, in case you might need it, and also for you to retain it as a memento from the Senators of this body. Yesterday, too, you were referred to, I believe by someone, I think that was when you were elected President Pro Tempore, as the "grand old man of Lancaster County." Well, now, that is fine, we think you could be one of the "grand old men of Pennsylvania," and I hope that as the years go by, you will continue to prosper, be happy and remember the men of this Senate.

I believe that few men, if any, were ever chosen to preside over this Senate for three terms. In my own experience I do not know of any who was chosen to preside twice, so that is a high honor conferred, which you can be justly proud of, and you have earned it, otherwise you would not have been chosen.

In closing, may I again say I hope that you will live many and many years, not only for your constituency of Lancaster County, but for your large constituency, the State of Pennsylvania.

Mr. HOMSHER. Senator Roberts and members, colleagues of the Senate of Pennsylvania: There is no place where friendship, human consideration for each other is developed to a higher degree than the Senate of Pennsylvania. I have lived long enough among the members of this body to hold the friendships made here among the closest relations of my life. No matter what our differences may be in political alliances, whatever the opinion regarding legislation, the inherent friendship that we hold towards each other lasts through life. I see members coming back to this body, and sons and daughters of the members coming in here and holding the cloaks of their parents who have served here, in the same high regard.

Now, your kindness to me is almost overwhelming. One is placed in the position where he is least able to defend himself under such praise, particularly when he realizes himself that he is very much over-estimated, so that I can do nothing more at this time than to thank you and to tell you again the high esteem that I hold towards the members of this body, and my belief in their integrity of intention in everything that they do here. Again I thank you.

RESOLUTION OF THANKS TO HONORABLE FRANK B. WICKERSHAM

Mr. REED (Dauphin). Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to offer a resolution at this time.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

Mr. REED offered the following resolution, which was twice read, considered and agreed to:

In the Senate, June 21, 1935.

Resolved, That the thanks of the Senate be extended to the Honorable Frank B. Wickersham, Judge Twelfth Judicial District, for his favor and courtesy in administering the oath of office to the newly elected President Pro Tempore, the Honorable John G. Homsher.

ARNOLD M. BLUMBERG,
SAMUEL A. WEISS,
HERMAN P. EBERHARTER,
Committee on the part of the House of Representatives

An Act to protect the obligors or guarantors of bonds and mortgages and owners of property affected thereby and others indirectly liable for the payment thereof and owners of mortgaged property affected thereby by restricting the right to proceed against certain property and persons limiting the amount of deficiency judgments and continuing rights duties and obligations established or forfeited under prior laws relating to deficiency judgments

Section 1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same That in all cases where a bond and mortgage or any other obligation securing or guaranteeing the payment thereof is or has been given for the same debt the real property bound by such bond and mortgage shall first be proceeded against and sold on execution and the amount of the deficiency judgment ascertained as hereinafter provided before any other real property of the mortgage debtor may be attached levied on or sold for the debt secured by such bond and mortgage and before any property real or personal of any such other person may be or sold for the debt secured by such bond and mortgage

Section 2 Whenever any real property is sold on or before June thirtieth one thousand nine hundred and thirty-seven on any execution on the foreclosure of any mortgage or on a judgment entered on any obligations secured by mortgage and the sum for which such property was sold is not sufficient to satisfy the debt interest and costs the plaintiff or use plaintiff shall within six months after such sale petition the Court out of which such execution issued to fix the fair value of the property sold

Section 3 The petition shall set forth

(a) The location by address or description of the real estate sold the name or names of the mortgagors and all other persons known to petitioner to be or who may be directly or indirectly liable to petitioner or any other person for the payment of said mortgage debt

(b) The price for which said property was sold at Sheriff's sale

(c) The cost of the proceedings under which the property was sold

(d) The amount of the judgment and the accrued and unpaid taxes water rents and other State and Municipal liens and interest and penalties thereon and other prior mortgage or judgment liens at the time of the said sale

(e) A statement of the fair value of said property at the time of said sale and shall name as respondents the mortgagors and all other persons known to petitioner to be or who may be directly or indirectly liable to petitioner or any other person for the payment of said mortgage debt or any obligation securing or guaranteeing such mortgage debt

Section 4 The Court shall thereupon fix a date for hearing on said petition not less than fifteen days after the filing thereof and said petition shall be served upon each and all of the persons named therein as respondents at least ten days prior to the date fixed for hearing At any time prior to the hearing any respondent or other person in interest may appear and answer setting up in his answer his interest in the proceedings and answering the averments of the petition Any party in interest may prior to the time of the hearing demand in writing a jury trial on any material issue or issues of fact raised by the pleadings whereupon the said issue or issues shall be determined by a jury trial as in other cases

Section 5 Said petition may be served by the Sheriff of the County or by the Sheriff of any other county specially deputized for that purpose upon the respondents named therein

(a) By handing an exact copy thereof to each of them personally or

(b) By leaving an exact copy thereof at the residence of each of them with an adult member of his family or

(c) If service cannot be had in either of the above methods and the return of the sheriff is that the respondent or respondents or any of them cannot be found in this county or state said respondent or respondents may be served by publishing in the legal newspaper of the county and one newspaper of general circulation in the county at least ten days prior to the presentation of such petition a notice to the said respondent or respondents for hearing thereof Provided however That if there be no legal newspaper in the county then in one newspaper of general circulation in said county

Section 6 Return of the service of any petition shall set forth particularly the time place and manner of service and shall be filed before the time fixed for hearing No judgment shall be entered or hearing had until the Court shall be satisfied that service has been made upon all the respondents in any one of the methods herein provided

Section 7 At such hearings any party in interest may introduce into evidence testimony of the fair value of the premises sold at the time of the sale or of any other matter in issue If the fair value of the said property at the time of the said sale shall be finally determined to be less than the total of the amounts of the judgment with interest and costs any prior mortgage or judgment liens not discharged by the sale the secured and unpaid taxes water rents and other state or municipal liens with interest and penalties thereon the Court shall enter a deficiency judgment in the said proceeding in the amount of the difference and thereupon the liability of all persons directly or indirectly liable for the payment of the said mortgage debt shall be limited to the amount of the said deficiency judgment Provided however that in no event shall the fair value be determined to be less than the price for which the property was sold at such Sheriff's sale

Section 8 After such Sheriff's sale no such plaintiff or use plaintiff shall take any proceedings to recover or collect the amount of the mortgage debt until and unless such deficiency judgment shall have been entered and if the plaintiff or use plaintiff shall fail to present such petition within six months after such sale the Prothonotary shall enter satisfaction of such judgment upon the written motion of the defendant or other party in interest provided however that such motion bears the written approval of a Judge of the Court out of which the execution issued Such satisfaction shall have the effect of terminating as well the liability of all persons directly or indirectly liable for the payment of said mortgage debt or any obligation securing or guaranteeing such mortgaged debt

Section 9 The defendant in the foreclosure proceedings or judgment or the real owner of the property sold or any other person or persons bound by any obligation securing or guaranteeing the payment of the mortgage debt or other person in interest may at any time after the sale present a petition to the Court in like manner to fix the fair value of the property sold In such case there shall be named as respondents the plaintiff and use plaintiffs as well as all other persons known to petitioner to be directly or indirectly liable to plaintiff or use plaintiff or any other person for the payment of the said mortgage debt and the case shall proceed in the same manner as hereinbefore provided for in the case of a petition by the plaintiff or use plaintiff

Section 10 Whenever at such Sheriff's sale the holder of a lien subsequent to that upon which the sale was had shall become the purchaser of the said property he shall not be entitled to take any proceedings to recover or collect the amount of the debt secured by the said lien or encumbrance until and unless a deficiency judgment shall be entered on such debt within the time and in the manner as hereinbefore provided in proceedings to obtain a deficiency judgment under the mortgage upon which the Sheriff's sale was had and in such case all the provisions of this Act shall apply with the same force and effect as if the said sale had been held upon said subsequent lien or any obligation secured thereby

Section 11 This act shall be deemed and shall be construed to be a continuation of the provisions of the act approved the seventeenth day of January one thousand nine hundred and thirty-four (Pamphlet Laws two hundred forty-three one thousand nine hundred thirty-three one thousand nine hundred thirty-four) entitled "An act to protect the owners of mortgaged property during the present emergency by limiting the amount of deficieny judgments during a certain period" and all rights vested or duties or obligations imposed or rights forfeited under the provisions of said act shall be deemed continued so vested imposed or forfeited under this act and enforceable under this act notwithstanding the expiration of said act of January seventeenth one thousand nine hundred and thirty-four by its own limitation

Section 12 The provisions of this act shall be severable and if any of the provisions shall be held to be unconstitutional such decision shall not affect the validity of any of the remaining provisions of this act It is hereby declared as the legislative intent that this act would have been adopted had such unconstitutional provision not been included therein

Section 13 This act is an emergency measure under the police power of this Commonwealth

Section 14 All acts and parts of acts inconsistent herewith are hereby repealed

Section 15 The provisions of this act shall become effective on July 1 1935

The PRESIDENT (Pro-Tempore John G. Homsher) in the presence of the Senate signed the same.

TUBERCULODID SANITORIA FOR NORTHWESTERN PENNSYLVANIA

Mr. EALY. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to offer a resolution at this time.

The President. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

Mr. EALY, offered the following resolution which was twice read considered and agreed to.

In the Senate, June 21, 1935.

Whereas, the various sanatoria for the care and treatment of tuberculosis have long waiting lists, and

Whereas, there is a demand for further institutions of this kind for the care and treatment of tubercular patients in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, and

Whereas, there is a probability that Federal moneys will be available for the construction of Public Works of various types and natures within the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, and

Whereas, there is no such institution in the Northwestern portion of Pennsylvania, and

Whereas, the Sterling Report compiled by a joint committee of the Senate and House of Representatives of Pennsylvania has recommended the construction of such an institution in the Northwestern portion of Pennsylvania,

Be it Therefore Resolved: That the proper authorities be requested to give careful and studious consideration to the question of the establishment and construction of a tuberculosis sanatorium in the Northwestern portion of Pennsylvania and that the Federal Government be respectfully requested to furnish the necessary money for such an institution.

Be It Further Resolved That a copy of this Resolution be sent by the Secretary of the Senate to George H. Earle, Governor of Pennsylvania, to the Federal Works Administration and to the Secretary of Health of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

Mr. EALY. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that Rule 39 which requires that resolutions be referred to an appropriate committee be suspended and that the Senate proceed to the immediate consideration of the resolution just read.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the Resolution?

It was agreed to.

QUESTION OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Mr. EALY. Mr. President, I rise to a question of personal privilege.

The PRESIDENT. The Senator from Somerset, Mr. Ealy, will state his question of personal privilege.

Mr. EALY. Mr. President, I call attention to the fact that on page 3599 of the Legislative Journal certain remarks are credited to me, which were in fact made by the Senator from Mercer, Mr. Law.

THANKS TO EMPLOYEES OF SENATE

Mr. STAUDENMEIER. Mr. President, I do not think we ought to bring this session to a close without expressing our appreciation for the splendid work performed by the employees of the Senate during this long and tedious session, especially the employees at the desk, who performed their work so ably, carefully, cautiously and splendidly. There never was any delay in the work and nobody complained of the work performed by these men at the desk. We also owe a great deal to Miss Carroll, in the Secretary's office. She also did splendid work. I think it is only fitting and proper that the record for all time to come, should show that we, in this long session, appreciate the work of these employees during this session.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

FRIDAY, JUNE 21, 1935

The House met at 12.01 A. M.

The SPEAKER (Wilson G. Sarig) in the Chair.

PRAYER

The Reverand Frank W. Ruth, a member of the House, offered the following prayer:

Our Heavenly Father, as we come to Thee at the closing day of our session, we thank Thee for the guidance of Thy Spirit, for the help that Thou hast given us in giving us health and strength and wisdom. We pray Thee to forgive what we have done amiss. We ask Thee to accompany us at the end of this legislative day to our homes, that we may there carry out those things which Thou has given us to do, and when sometime we may be called back again; may we come back with that spirit of amity to do that work which Thou hast helped us to do so far, and to complete it.

We ask Thee to bless every member and especially those who are absent and not with us because of illness. We ask that Thou wilt restore them to full health and strength and usefulness in this House.

In the Master's Name, Amen.

BILLS ON FINAL PASSAGE

Agreeably to order.

The House proceeded to the consideration on final passage of House Bill No. 1301 (Senate Bill No. 168), as follows:

An Act creating a commission to allot all space in the Capitol Building and defining the duties of the said commission

Section 1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same That with a view to the control and allotment of space in the capitol building a commission of five members is created to be known as the Capitol Building Commission to be composed of the President Pro Tempore of the Senate of Pennsylvania who shall be ex officio chairman of the commission the Speaker of the House of Representatives of Pennsylvania a Senator in the General Assembly of Pennsylvania to be designated from time to time by the President Pro Tempore of the Senate a Representative in the General Assembly to be designated from time to time by the Speaker of the House of Representatives and the Secretary of Property and Supplies The Secretary of the Senate and the Chief Clerk of the House of Representatives shall be ex officio secretaries of the commission

Said commission shall be empowered to require the services of employes of the Senate of Pennsylvania and employes of the House of Representatives of Pennsylvania as shall be necessary and all members of the commission as well as secretaries and employes of the commission shall serve without pay except employes of the Senate or House of Representatives who do not receive an annual salary may be allotted such compensation as the commission may designate and fix from time to time to be paid from the Legislative appropriation as the commission shall determine

Any vacancy in said commission may be filled by the commissioners electing a Senator or a member of the House of Representatives to fill such vacancy temporarily and any commissioner so elected shall serve until the office vacated shall be filled as provided by law

Section 2 Said commission shall have the absolute control of the allotment of all space in the State Capitol Building [and the building now commonly known as the Museum Building! and shall from time to time assign and allot for the use of the several activities of the government all such space Provided however That the space now alloted to the Judicial Department of the Government the Chamber of the Senate and the Hall of the House of Representatives shall be as heretofore

Section 3 All acts and parts of acts inconsistent with this act are hereby repealed

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. WOODSIDE. Mr. Speaker, yesterday I was requested by Mr. Furman and by the floor leader of the Democratic party that this bill go over in its order. I will say to the members of the House that they now consent that this bill pass. I, therefore, ask the members to vote "aye".

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, I would like to interrogate the gentleman from Dauphin, Mr. Woodside.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Dauphin permit himself to be interrogated.

Mr. WOODSIDE. Mr. Speaker, I will.

Mr. ANDREWS. I cannot find the bill on my desk. Has it been amended in the House?

Mr. WOODSIDE. It was in the files.

Mr. ANDREWS. What does this bill now provide?

Mr. WOODSIDE. Mr. Speaker, the amendments take out of the control of the Commission as provided by the bill the State Museum. I understand that was satisfactory to all parties at interest. The Commission is now composed of the President pro tempore of the Senate, the Speaker of the House, the Chief Clerk of the House and the Secretary of the Senate to act as secretaries.

Ordered, That the Clerk return the same to the Senate with information that the House has passed it with amendments in which the concurrence of the Senate is requested.

Agreeably to order.

The House proceeded to the consideration on final passage of House Bill No. 2902 (Senate Bill No. 1128) as follows:

An Act to protect the owners of mortgaged property by restricting the right to proceed against certain property and persons limiting the amount of deficiency judgments and continuing rights duties and obligations established or forfeited under prior laws relating to deficiency judgments

Section 1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same That in all cases where a bond and mortgage the payment thereof is or has been given for the same debt the real property bound by such bond and mortgage shall first be proceeded against and sold on execution and the amount of the deficiency judgment ascertained as hereinafter provided before any other property real or personal of the mortgage debtor may be attached levied on or sold for the debt secured by such bond and mortgage

Section 2 Wherever any real property is sold on or before June thirtieth one thousand nine hundred and thirty-seven on any execution on the foreclosure of any mortgage or on a judgment entered on any obligations secured by mortgage and the sum for which such property was sold is not sufficient to satisfy the debt interest and costs including taxes the plaintiff or use plaintiff shall within six months after such sale petition the Court out of which such execution issued to fix the fair value of the property sold at the time of such sale

Section 3 The petition shall set forth

(a) The location by address or description of the real estate sold the name or names of the mortgagors and all other persons known to petitioner to be or who may be directly or indirectly liable to petitioner or any other person for the payment of said mortgage debt

(b) The price for which said property was sold at Sheriff's sale

(c) The cost of the proceedings under which the property was sold

(d) The amount of the judgment and the accrued and unpaid taxes water rents and other State and Municipal liens and interest and penalties thereon and other prior mortgage or judgment liens at the time of the said sale

(e) A statement of the fair value of said property at the time of said sale and shall name as respondents the mortgagors and all other persons known to petitioner to be or who may be directly or indirectly liable to petitioner or any other person for the payment of said mortgage debt

Section 4 The Court shall thereupon fix a date for hearing on said petition not less than fifteen days after the filing thereof and said petition shall be served upon each and all of the persons named therein as respondents at least ten days prior to the date fixed for hearing At any time prior to the hearing any respondent or other person in interest may appear and answer setting up in his answer his interest in the proceedings and answering the averments of the petition Any party in interest may prior to the time of the hearing demand in writing a jury trial on any material issue or issues of fact raised by the pleadings whereupon the said issue or issues shall be determined by a jury trial as in other cases

Section 5 Said petition may be served by the Sheriff of the County or by the Sheriff or any other county specially deputized for that purpose upon the respondents named therein

(a) By handing an exact copy thereof to each of them personally or

(b) By leaving an exact copy thereof at the residence of each of them with an adult member of his family or

(c) If service cannot be had in either of the above methods and the return of the sheriff is that the respondent or respondents or any of them cannot be found in this county or state said respondent or respondents may be served by publishing in the legal newspaper of the county and one newspaper of general circulation in the county at least ten days prior to the presentation of such petition a notice to the said respondent or respondents of the filing of said petition and of the time and place fixed for hearing thereon Provided however That if there be no legal newspaper in the county and there be more than one newspaper of general circulation then in two such newspapers otherwise in the one only

Section 6 Return of the service of any petition shall set forth particularly the time place and manner of service and shall be filed at least five days before the time fixed for hearing Excepting however That service of the petition may be made personally by a person other than such sheriff or may be made by registered letter directed to the last known place of residence of any of such parties or if the last known place of residence of any of such parties shall not be known to the petitioner such notice shall be given by publication as above provided No judgment shall be entered or hearing had until the Court shall be satisfied that service has been made upon all the respondents in any one of the methods herein provided

Section 7 At such hearings any party in interest may introduce into evidence testimony of the fair value of the premises sold at the time of the sale or of any other matter in issue If the fair value of the said property at the time of the said sale shall be finally determined to be less than the total of the amounts of the judgment with interest and costs any prior mortgage or judgment liens not discharged by the sale the secured and unpaid taxes water rents and other state or municipal liens with interest and penalties thereon the Court shall enter a deficiency judgment in the said proceeding in the amount of the difference and thereupon the liability of all persons directly or indirectly liable for the payment of the said mortgage debt shall be limited to the amount of the said deficiency judgment Provided however that in no event shall the fair value be determined to be less than the price for which the property was sold at such Sheriff's sale

Section 8 After such Sheriff's sale no such plaintiff or use plaintiff shall take any proceedings to recover or collect the amount of the mortgage debt until and unless such deficiency judgment shall have been entered and if the plaintiff or use plaintiff shall fail to present such petition within six months after such sale the Prothonotary shall enter satisfaction of such judgment upon the written motion of the defendant or other party in interest Such satisfaction shall have the effect of terminating as well the liability of all persons directly or indirectly liable for the payment of said mortgage debt

Section 9 The defendant in the foreclosure proceedings or judgment or the real owner of the property sold or any other person or persons bound by any obligation securing the payment of the mortgage debt or other person in interest may at any time after the sale present a petition to the Court in like manner to fix the fair value of the property sold In such case there shall be named as respondents the plaintiff and use plaintiffs as well as all other persons known to petitioner to be directly or indirectly liable to plaintiff or use plaintiff or any other person for the payment of the said mortgage debt and the case shall proceed in the same manner as hereinbefore provided for in the case of a petition by the plaintiff or use plaintiff

Section 10 Whenever at such Sheriff's sale the holder of a lien subsequent to that upon which the sale was had shall become the purchaser of the said property he shall not be entitled to take any proceedings to recover or collect the amount of the debt secured by the said lien or encumbrance until and unless a deficiency judgment shall be entered on such debt within the time and in the manner as hereinbefore provided in proceedings to obtain a deficiency judgment under the mortgage upon which the Sheriff's sale was had and in such case all the provisions of this Act shall apply with the same force and effect as if the said sale had been held upon said subsequent lien or any obligation secured thereby

Section 11 This act shall be deemed and shall be construed to be a continuation of the provisions of the act approved the seventeenth day of January one thousand nine hundred and thirty-four (Pamphlet Laws two hundred forty-three one thousand nine hundred thirty-three one thousand nine hundred thirty-four) entitled "An act to protect the owners of mortgaged property during the present emergency by limiting the amount of deficiency judgments during a certain period" and all rights vested or duties or obligations imposed or rights forfeited under the provisions of said act shall be deemed continued so vested imposed or forfeited under this act and enforceable under this act notwithstanding the expiration of said act of January seventeenth one thousand nine hundred and thirty-four by its own limitation

Section 12 The provisions of this act shall be severable and if any of the provisions shall be held to be unconstitutional such decision shall not affect the validity of any of the remaining provisions of this act It is hereby declared as the legislative intent that this act would have been adopted had such unconstitutional provision not been included therein

Section 13 This act is an emergency measure under the police power of this Commonwealth

Section 14 All acts and parts of acts inconsistent herewith are hereby repealed

Section 15 The provisions of this act shall become effective on July 1 1935

RECONSIDERATION OF VOTE ON SENATE BILL NO. 1586

Mr. WITKIN. Mr. Speaker, I move that the vote by which House Bill No. 3052, Senate Bill No. 1586, Printer's No. 626, entitled:

An Act to amend section two of the act approved the nineteenth day of September one thousand nine hundred and thirty-four (Pamphlet Laws seven) entitled "An act transferring money from the Liquor License Fund to the General Fund and providing for the subsequent return from the General Fund of the transferred money" by extending the time for the repayment of the amounts transferred on page 3 of today's calendar, passed finally be reconsidered.

Mr. BLUMBERG. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

The SPEAKER. How did the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Witkin, vote on the final passage of this bill?

Mr. WITKIN. Mr. Speaker, I voted aye.

The SPEAKER. How did the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Blumberg, vote on the final passage of this bill?

Mr. BLUMBERG. Mr. Speaker, I voted aye.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the motion?

Mr. COHEN. Mr. Speaker, I realize that when Senate Bill No. 1586, was passed the House was somewhat in a state of confusion and disorder. However, irrespective of that fact, I think this Legislative session of today is faced with a very great and grave crisis. The problem that we have presented to us by this bill is this, are we going to adjourn today or not? Secondly, are we going to leave the financial affairs of this Commonwealth in such shape so that the budget can be approximately balanced, so that the hospitals, the aged, the homes, the institutions may participate in some revenues that are coming in immediaely at this time.

Now, these acts do not transfer any money. These acts do not take one penny out of any particular fund. These acts do not in any way impinge on the financial reserve of these particular funds. All that these acts do is to continue the date upon which final payment is due. These acts extend the due date of the monies that have been taken from these funds from December 31 of this year until May 31 of 1937.

This is not a denial of our obligation to repay those funds; it is merely an extension of the time in which those funds can be repaid, and the problem we have to face today is this, are we going to say to the hospitals, "You cannot get your money because we have to return the money that was borrowed from the Motor Fund." Are you going to say to the aged who are expecting their old age contributions, "You cannot get your money because we have to return the money to the Liquid Fuel Funds." Are you going to say to the blind, "You cannot get your money because we have to return the money to the State School Fund."

Are you going to say to every non-preferential obligation of this Commonwealth, "You cannot get your money because we are not going to extend the date of payment from December of this year until June of nineteen thirty-seven?" I do not think that is the intention or the will of the membership of this House. These bills have been prepared and studied. We have had a bill in the Senate that possibly did not meet with the opinions and desires of that body, and these bills are now presented to the membership of this House in order that those non-preferential obligations of the Commonwealth may be satisfied. I ask you to vote down this motion of the gentleman from Philadelphia. I ask you to go along in reconsidering the vote by which Senate Bill No. 1586 was defeated, and I ask your favorable vote on the passage of the rest of these bills which will only extend the date of the return of the money to the fund.

Mr. WITKIN. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, first before discussing or answering the gentleman from York, Mr. Cohen it seems to me that the motion to reconsider the vote on Senate Bill No. 1586 ought to be agreed to without opposition, for this reason, that we on this side of the House, state very frankly that in the confusion we did not know upon which bill we were voting, and that responsibility is mine. I thought we were on the bill that preceded this bill. We want the opportunity to know what bills we are voting upon, therefore we ask you to reconsider the vote. If you are for the bill, you are for it, and if you are against it you are against it, but we do not want to be recorded as voting in error, because of the confusion, you will agree, that prevailed in the House at that time.

If you vote for this motion to reconsider, and if the leaders on the other side of the House will agree, I will refrain at this moment from replying to the argument of the gentleman from York, Mr. Cohen.

May I ask at this time, Mr. Speaker, whether it would be agreeable to the majority party at this moment to vote merely to reconsider, so that we may have a proper record and know for what bill we are voting. That is the sole purpose of the motion to reconsider at this time.

Mr. COHEN. Out of deference to the request of the gentleman from Philadelphia I will withdraw my objection to the reconsideration of the vote by which Senate Bill No. 1586 was passed

Mr. WITKIN. Mr. Speaker, may I thank the gentleman from York, Mr. Cohen.

On the question recurring,
Will the House agree to the motion?
It was agreed to.

BILL PASSED IN ORDER

Mr. COHEN. Mr. Speaker, I ask that this bill be passed over in its order.

The SPEAKER. The bill will be passed over.

RECONSIDERATION OF VOTE ON SENATE BILL 1585

Mr. COHEN. Mr. Speaker, I move you that the vote by which House Bill 3051, Senate Bill No. 1585, Printer's No. 625 was defeated on final passage be reconsidered.

On the question,
Will the House agree to the motion?

Mr. WITKIN. May I return the courtesy of the gentleman from York, Mr. Cohen, Mr. Speaker, by asking the membership to vote "aye" on the motion to reconsider Senate Bill No. 1582 because I am sure the majority party are in the same position on this bill as the minority party was on the other bill.

The SPEAKER. How did the gentleman from York, Mr. Cohen, vote?

Mr. WITKIN. Mr. Speaker, in order to comply with the desire of the gentleman from York, Mr. Cohen, who apparently voted in the affirmative, I having voted in the negative, will make the motion in his behalf.

Mr. WITKIN. Mr. Speaker, I move that the vote by which House Bill No. 3051, Senate Bill No. 1585, Printer's No. 625, entitled:

An Act to amend section two of the act approved the nineteenth day of September one thousand nine hundred and thirty-four (Pamphlet Laws six) entitled "An act transferring money from the Liquid Fuels Tax Fund to the General Fund and providing for the subsequent return from the General Fund of the transferred money" by extending the time for the repayment of the amounts transferred was defeated on final passage, today, be reconsidered.

Mr. WICKERSHAM. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

The SPEAKER. How did the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Witkin, vote on the final passage of the bill?

Mr. WITKIN. Mr. Speaker, I voted in the majority.

The SPEAKER. How did the gentleman from Dauphin, Mr. Wickersham, vote on the final passage of the bill?

Mr. WICKERSHAM. Mr. Speaker, I voted in the majority.

On the question,
Will the House agree to the motion?
It was agreed to.

BILL PASSED IN ORDER

Mr. COHEN. Mr. Speaker, I ask that this bill go over in its order.

APPROPRIATION BILLS ON THIRD READING

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk return the same to the Senate with information that the House has passed it without amendment.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 3045 (Senate Bill No. 1599), entitled:

An Act providing for the purchase and for the distribution of vitamin products as defined in this act to certain pupils in the public schools conferring powers and imposing duties on the Department of Health the Department of Public Instruction the Department of Property and Supplies school districts teachers and medical inspectors of schools and making an appropriation

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, and members of the House, I feel that I ought to call to the attention of the House the fact that while his bill is a very worthy project it means the addition, as I understand it, of six hundred thousand dollars to the budget, in other words the expenditure which the state will have to make for the purchase of these supplies for the schools means $600,000 more added to the State's expenses for the next two years.

Mr. SIMON. Mr. Speaker, I wish to state to the members of this House that I understand that this item of $600,000 has been included in the Governor's budget.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows, viz:

An Act making an appropriation for the payment of the salaries of Members of the Senate and House of Representatives elected to fill vacancies happening during the Session of the General Assembly of one thousand nine hundred and thirty-five

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. COHEN. Mr. Speaker, I wish to call the attention of the House to the fact that this bill carries with it appropriations whereby the latest acquisition of this House will be reimbursed for the faithful performance of services in the General Assembly. Since his election the gentleman from Montgomery, Mr. Winner, has not been able to eat. This bill will enable him so to do.

BILL ON THIRD READING

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 3018 (Senate Bill No. 1509), entitled:

An Act creating a Highway Accident Prevention Commission in the Department of Revenue and defining its powers and duties.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

BILL POSTPONED

Mr. FURMAN. Mr. Speaker, I move that this bill be placed upon the postponed calendar.

The motion was agreed to.

BILL ON THIRD READING

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 981 (Senate Bill No. 36), entitled:

An Act to amend section four of the act approved the second day of June, one thousand nine hundred and thirty-one (P. L. 720), entitled "An act providing for the taking over by the Commonwealth, under certain terms, conditions and limitations, of certain streets in cities of the second class, second class A, and third class as State highways, and for the improvement, construction, reconstruction, resurfacing and maintenance by the Commonwealth of certain defined widths of said streets; imposing duties on such cities and on public utility companies using such streets; providing that no assessment shall be made upon the Commonwealth in the elimination of any grade crossing thereon; authorizing cities, persons, associations, or corporations to enter into agreements with the Commonwealth to bear a portion of the cost of construction or maintenance; providing for the assessment of certain portions of the cost of street improvements on abutting property owners; regulating the replacement of certain facilities of public utility companies; prohibiting the opening of said streets after improvement without a permit, and providing penalty therefor; regulating the maintenance of detours; authorizing the increase of city indebtedness in certain cases; and appropriating money in the Motor License Fund for the purposes of this act;" authorizing the Secretary of Highways to assume the obligation to reconstruct, improve and maintain certain city bridges and viaducts.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

BILL POSTPONED

Mr. FURMAN. Mr. Speaker, I move that this bill be placed upon the postponed calendar.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the motion?

Mr. MASON. Mr. Speaker, may I interrogate the gentleman from Greene, Mr. Furman.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Greene, Mr. Furman permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. FURMAN. Mr. Speaker, I will.

Mr. MASON. It is my understanding, Mr. Speaker, that this bill was reported out by agreement with the Secretary of Highways. May I ask the gentleman if that is his understading too?

Mr. FURMAN. Mr. Speaker, I was misinformed on that. I so understood but I found that I was mistaken in that he agreed to it. It was reported out, and at that time it was reported as I understood that it was agreeable, but I have been informed that it is not. The department feels that they are unable to take over these bridges and viaducts at this time.

Mr. MASON. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, it is my understanding that this bill provides that the Secretary of Highways may, if he is so inclined, assume the obligation to reconstruct, improve and maintain certain bridges and viaducts in third class cities. It is not a mandatory requirement on the part of the Highway Department, or on the part of the Secretary of Highways, and the passage of this bill is simply to allow the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania to intervene and aid cities that are unable financially to repair viaducts and bridges that are within the confines of those cities . I therefore, ask you to vote "no" on the motion to place this bill on the postponed calendar.

Mr. FURMAN. Mr. Speaker, and members of the House, this bill will permit the Department of Highways—

Mr. WITKIN. Mr. Speaker, may I ask the gentleman to yield to me for a moment? I think I can clarify this matter.

Mr. FURMAN. I will, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. WITKIN. Mr. Speaker, unknown to the gentleman from Luzerne, Mr. Mason, I had agreed to have this bill placed upon the postponed calendar, and I will therefore ask the membership,—and I think it will be satisfactory to Mr. Mason,—to place this bill on the postponed calendar for consideration later on today.

Mr. MASON. Mr. Speaker, I withdraw my objection, that is satisfactory to me.

On the question recurring.

Will the House agree to the motion?

It was agreed to.

RECONSIDERATION OF RESOLUTION NO. 172

Mr. COLEMAN. Mr. Speaker, I move that the vote by which Resolution No. 173, Serial No. 253, was adopted be reconsidered.

Mr. O'NEILL. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

The SPEAKER. How did the gentleman from Lackawanna, Mr. Coleman, vote on the final passage of the resolution?

Mr. COLEMAN. Mr. Speaker, I voted in the affirmative.

The SPEAKER. How did the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. O'Neill, vote on the final passage of the resolution?

Mr. O'NEILL. Mr. Speaker, I voted in the affirmative.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the motion?

The SPEAKER declared the ayes appeared to have it, Whereupon, a division was called for, seventy-two members having voted in the affirmative and sixty-one in the negative, the question was determined in the affirmative and the motion was agreed to.

On the question recurring,

Will the House adopt the resolution?

RESOLUTION LAID ON TABLE

Mr. COLEMAN. Mr. Speaker, I move that the Resolution be laid upon the table.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the motion?

The yeas and nays were required by Mr. MELCHIORRE and Mr. SHAW.

Mr. MELCHIORRE. Mr. Speaker, I ask for a verification of the roll.

The roll was verified and was as follows:

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk return the same to the Senate with information that the House has passed it without amendment.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 2866 (Senate Bill No. 1006), as follows:

An Act to amend sections four hundred and twenty-three and five hundred and seventy-one of the act approved the first day of May one thousand nine hundred and thirty-three (Pamphlet Laws one hundred three) entitled "An act concerning township of the second class and amending revising consolidating and changing the law relating thereto" providing for the collection of county township and school taxes by the county commissioners in certain cases conferring power on school districts and townships with respect to the collection of their taxes and providing that the bonds of township tax collectors may be fidelity bonds

Section 1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same That sections four hundred and twenty-three and five hundred and seventy-one of the act approved the first day of May one thousand nine hundred and thirty-three (Pamphlet Laws one hundred three) entitled "An act concerning townships of the second class and amending revising consolidating and changing the laws relating thereto" are hereby amended to read as follows

Section 423 Tax Collector If the electors of any township of the second class shall fail to choose a tax collector or if any person elected to such office shall fail to give the required bond [and] or shall fail to take the required oath or if a vacancy shall occur in the office by death resignation or otherwise the county commissioners in either event upon presentation of a petition of any citizen who is a resident of the township setitng forth the facts or upon their own initiative shall appoint a resident of the township to fill the vacancy for the unexpired term of the person whose place he is appointed to fill or a corporation duly qualified and legally authorized to transact a fiduciary business in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania and whose principal place of business is located in the county where said township is located

If a corporation be so appointed it shall give such bond as the county commissioners may fix to be approved by the court of quarter sessions

In cases when the person elected to the office shall fail to [qualify] give bond or to take the required oath the county commissioners before making the appointment shall declare the office vacant

Whenever a vacancy exists in the office of tax collector and no person resident within the township can be found within thirty days to accept the appointment to fill such vacancy the county commissioners may appoint the county treasurer as tax collector

Where the county treasurer is so appointed he shall have authority to appoint a deputy to assist in the collection of the taxes set forth in the duplicates delivered to him The county treasurer shall be entitled to retain for his own use so much of the commissions payable for the collection of said taxes [and] as may be required for the payment of his deputy and the premium on his bond and shall not be required to pay the same over to the county but any commissions over and above such costs shall belong to the county to reimburse the county for office rent light heat telephone service compensation insurance supplies postage and equipment The salary board of the county and where there is no salary board then the county commissioners shall fix the compensation of any deputy appointed

If the county treasurer so appointed shall refuse to accept the appointment the county commissioners may appoint any suitable resident of the county to perform the duties of tax collector for the unexpired term and if no such person can be found within the county to accept appointment as tax collector for the township the county commissioners shall retain the duplicate of the county tax and notify the township and school district to deliver their respective duplicate to the county commissioners unless the township or school district desires to collect their respective taxes directly through their respective treasurers as tax collectors or through collectors appointed by them which they shall have authority to do No such township or school treasurer shall be required to give additional bond but shall have all the powers and perform all the duties herein imposed on tax collectors The county commissioners shall in any such case have the power to collect the taxes for the county and for any township and school district and shall perform all the duties and have all the powers of tax collectors and shall have power to appoint a peuty as herein provided where the county treasurer is appointed as tax collector and to fix his compensation Taxes collected by the commissioners shall be paid over to the county treasurer who shall pay to the township or school district any taxes received for their use less such amount as is allowed as a commission for the collection of taxes which shall be retained for the use of the county in order to reinburse the county for the costs and expenses incurred by the county in collecting such taxes The county commissioners shall not be required to give any bond for the duties herein imposed nor shall they receive any compensation for collecting such taxes The county commissioners shall where they collect taxes as herein provided have all the powers and perform the duties vested in collectors of county township and school taxes

Section 571 Oath and Bond The collector of taxes of townships shall before he enters upon the duties of his office take and subscribe an oath of office and file the same in the office of the court of quarter sessions and shall annually enter into a bond to the Commonwealth as required under existing law or a fidelity bond as the taxing authorities may determine in not more than the amount of taxes charged and assessed in the duplicates with at least two sufficient sureties or one bonding company The bond shall be approved by the court of quarter sessions and shall be filed in the office of the clerk of said court The condition of the bond shall be that the collector shall well and truly pay over [or] all taxes received and collected and account for the whole amount of taxes charged and assessed in the duplicates which shall be delivered to him by paying over the tax penalties and interest collected less commissions by showing exonerations of unpaid occupation poll and per capita taxes and by making return of unpaid taxes on real estate in accordance with existing law or enter liens therefor in the office of the prothonotary Upon so truthfully accounting for all of the taxes charged in the duplicates the bond of the tax collector shall be discharged This bond does not cover the collection and payment over of school taxes Where the county treasurer is appointed as tax collector if the condition of his bond as county treasurer does not secure the payment over and accounting of moneys other than county moneys the county commissioners shall fix the amount of the special bond to be given by the county treasurer for payment over and accounting of other than county taxes

And said bill having been read at length the third time, considered and agreed to.

Sproul,

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk return the same to the Senate with information that the House has passed it with amendments in which the concurrence of the Senate is requested.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 3049 (Senate Bill No. 1290), entitled:

An Act to amend section five hundred eighteen of the act approved the twenty-second day of May one thousand nine hundred and thirty-three (Pamphlet Laws eight hundred fifty-three) entitled "An act relating to taxation designating the subjects property and persons subject to and exempt from taxation for all local purposes providing for and regulating the assessment and valuation of persons property and subjects of taxation for county purposes and for the use of those municipal and quasi-municipal corporations which levy their taxes on county assessments and valuations amending revising and consolidating the law relating thereto and repealing existing laws" regulating the refunding of taxes where appeals are finally disposed of

And said bill having been read at length the third time, considered and agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows, viz:

Ordered, That the Clerk return the same to the Senate with information that the House has passed it without amendment.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 3050 (Senate Bill No. 1143), as follows:

An Act requiring cities of the first class to allow members of the police departments twenty-four consecutive hours of rest each week except in emergency cases

Section 1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same That every city of the first class shall allow and permit every member of such police department to have at least twenty-four consecutive hours of rest in every calendar week and shall rotate the members of the police department on a regular schedule except in emergency cases for the suppression of riots or tumults or in times of war pestilence conflagration or public celebrations without diminution of the salary or compensation fixed by ordinance or resolution of such city Provided however That no vacation or suspension period of a member of the police department shall be increased or reduced by reason of the fact that during such period such member if working would have been entitled to one or more rest days under the provisions of this act

Section 2 This act shall become effective on the first day of January one thousand nine hundred and thirty-six

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to,

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. JACKSON. Mr. Speaker, I rise to say a few words in favor of this bill.

On January 22, 1935, I introduced House Bill No. 193 in this House, of which this bill is an exact duplicate. I was then and still am in favor of the principle of the bill. House, Bill No. 193 introduced by me was pickled in this House by the Democratic controlled committee. However, I call upon my Republican friends to vote in favor of this bill in order that the members of the police department may receive the benefits to which they are justly and properly entitled

Mr. TUMELTY. Mr. Speaker, if I understand the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Jackson, correctly, I believe he said that he introduced a bill of the same kind early in the session. The same question came up before and I would like to call the attention to the House at this time to the same thing to which I called their attention before, that in Mr. Jackson's bill there was a provision that a policeman would not have any days rest when he was preserving the public peace,—and that is his job always. Under the provisions of the bill that Mr. Jackson introduced, a policeman would never get any time off.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows, viz:

BILLS ON THIRD READING

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 2917 (Senate Bill No. 1305) as follows:

An Act to further amend subsection twenty of and to add subsections twenty-five and twenty-six to section one thousand two hundred and ten of the act approved the eighteenth day of May one thousand nine hundred and eleven (Pamphlet Laws three hundred nine) entitled "An act to establish a public school system in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania together with the provisions by which it shall be administered and prescribing penalties for the violation thereof providing revenue to establish and maintain the same and the method of collecting such revenue and repealing all laws general special or local or any parts thereof that are or may be inconsistent therewith" by requiring the payment by the Commonwealth of the whole of the minimum salaries of members of the teaching and supervisory staffs of elementary schools and of an additional part of the minimum salaries of the members of the teaching and supervisory staffs of junior high schools subject to the reduction of taxes on real property by school districts and imposing duties on school districts

Section 1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same That subsection twenty of section one thousand two hundred and ten of the act approved the eighteenth day of May one thousand nine hundred and eleven (Pamphlet Laws three hundred nine) entitled "An act to establish a public school system in the Commonwealht of Pennsylvania together with the provisions by which it shall be administered and prescribing penalties for the violation thereof providing revenue to establish and maintain the same and the method of collecting such revenue and repealing all laws general special or local or any parts thereof that are or may be inconsistent therewith" as last amended by section twenty-nine of the act approved the twenty-ninth day of May one thousand nine hundred and thirty-one (Pamphlet Laws two hundred forty-three) is hereby further amended to read as follows

Twenty On or before the first day of November of each year each school district of the first and second class and each school district of the third class having a district superintendent shall file a certificate with the Superintendent of Public Instruction in such form as he may prescribe and on blanks to be furnished by him showing the number of full-time teachers supervisors principals and other full-time members of the teaching and supervisory staffs the number thereof employed in elementary schools and the number employed respectively in three and four year junior high schools the certificates held by each and the compensation paid each for the current school year and showing further the number of part-time teachers supervisors and principals employed in extension schools and classes established as herein provided the certificates held by each and the compensation paid each during the preceding school year On or before the first day of October of each year each school district of the third class not having a district superintendent and each school district of the fourth class shall forward such a certificate to the county superintendent and if approved by him the county superintendent shall forward the same to the Superintendent of Public Instruction on or before the first day of November of each year

Section 2 Section one thousand two hundred and ten of said act is hereby further amended by adding at the end thereof two new subsections to read as follows

Twenty-five In addition to all payments which the Commonwealth is now by law required to make to school districts on account of the salaries of members of the teaching and supervisory staffs of such school districts the Commonwealth shall pay for the fiscal year beginning June first one thousand nine hundred and thirty-six and each fiscal year thereafter to such school districts as comply with the laws governing the public schools of the Commonwealth and with the further requirements of these amendments the following amounts

(a) On account of the minimum salaries of all members of the teaching and supervisory staffs of all elementary schools an amount which together with the amount now required by law will equal per member of such staffs the sum of one hundred dollars ($100) per month for each month the schools are in session not in any case to exceed nine months in any district

(b) On account of the minimum salaries of all members of the teaching and supervisory staffs of all junior high schools giving work for the seventh eighth and ninth years as prescribed by law an amount which together with the amount now required by law to be paid as the average minimum salary for members of teaching and supervisory staffs of elementary schools will equal the sum of one hundred dollars ($100) per month multiplied by a number equal to two-thirds of the total number of members of the teaching and supervisory staffs of all of the junior high schools of the district which sum shall be payable for each month the schools are in session not in any case to exceed nine months in any district

(c) On account of the minimum salaries of all members of the teaching and supervisory staffs of all junior high schools giving work for the seventh eighth ninth and tenth years as prescribed by law an amount which together with the amount now required by law to be paid as the average minimum salary for members of teaching and supervisory staffs of elementary schools will equal the sum of one hundred dollars ($100) per month multiplied by a number equal to one-half of the total number of members of the teaching and supervisory staffs of all of the junior high schools of the district which sum shall be payable for each month the schools are in session not in any case to exceed nine months in any district

The number of members of all of such staffs shall be as shown by the certificate required by law to be filed with the Superintendent of Public Instruction in the November immediately preceding any such fiscal year and shall in no case exceed the number of the members of such staffs employed during the school years one thousand nine hundred and thirty-four one thousand nine hundred and thiryt-five unless an additional number is approved by the Superintendent of Public Instruction Such payments shall be made in the same manner and at the same times as payments on account of such salaries are by law required to be made

Twenty-six Except as hereinafter provided no school district shall be entitled to receive or shall be paid State-aid under the provisions of these amendments unless the board of education or board of school directors of the school district shall for the fiscal year of such school district commencing on the first day of January one thousand nine hundred and thirty-six or on the first Monday of July one thousand nine hundred and thirty-six as the case may be and for each fiscal year thereafter reduce the amount of its budget to be raised by means of taxes on real estate per estimated pupil and correspondingly its tax rate as compared with the amount of tax revenue raised from real estate per pupil during the fiscal year one thousand nine hundred and thirty-two or one thousand nine hundred and thirty-two one thousand nine hundred and thirty-three as the case may be by an amount not less than the State-aid per estimated pupil to be received from payments received to be made by the Commonwealth under the provisions of these amendments and payable to the school district during said school year Provided that no school district shall reduce its tax levy on real estate for any school year below that required to pay the interest and sinking fund charges on the funded debt of the school district or as may be required for capital expenditures Provided further that in any case where by reason of either additional or fewer increments required by law the salary budget of any school district has been increased or reduced beyond the proportions herein prescribed such school district shall add or subtract as the case may be the total amount of such increments to or from the salary budget herein provided for

If any question shall raise under this subsection whether a school district in accordance with the spirit and intent of these amendments has either effected a reduction of taxes on real estate or has failed to do so only because of the reasonable requirements of its educational program such question shall be decided by the Superintendent of Public Instruction whose action thereon shall be final

And said bill having been read at length the third time, considered and agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?
